PREFACE.

THE important collection of manuscripts described in this volume was accumulated by Dr Thomas Gale and his eldest son Roger Gale. Dr Thomas Gale, born in 1635 or 1636, was successively Regius Professor of Greek in the University (1672), High Master of St Paul's School (1672) and Dean of York (1697). He died in 1702.

Roger Gale, born in 1672, became Scholar of Trinity in 1693 and Fellow in 1697, graduating as B.A. in 1694 and M.A. in 1698. He was at various times in Parliament and held an appointment under Government. He died in 1744.

The elder Gale's publications were of considerable merit and importance. They included the Opuscula Mythologica, the Scriptores Historiae Anglicanae xv, and some works of Johannes Scotus Erigena. Those of Roger were chiefly confined to occasional tracts on subjects of archaeological interest¹. Both father and son were enthusiastic antiquaries, and the latter bequeathed a collection of coins to the University Library.

A far more important benefaction, however, was his presentation of the Gale manuscripts to Trinity College. In 1697, on leaving London, Dr Thomas Gale presented his Oriental collection; and in 1738 Roger Gale gave the manuscripts now to be described. The letter in which he offered this magnificent gift to the Society is preserved in a small volume in Class O. It runs as follows:

SCRUTON NEAR BEDALE,
July y^e 21st 1738.

GENTLEMEN,

The great respect and esteem that I retain for your Society, of which I once had the honor of being a Member, and my inclination to preserve near Five Hundred Volumes MS^t, now in my possession, from being some time or other disperst or perhaps lost, have induced me to make a Present of them to your Library, where I hope they will not only be more secure but of greater service to the Public than in any private hand.

I desire therefore your acceptance of them for the use of the College, and that they may be repositied all together in one of the Classes of your Library, and that you will be pleased to give such orders for their safety as you may judge necessary and convenient. In such a Collection there must be some that may be lookt upon as trifles, but when you examin the whole, I am confident you will allow more of them to be of value, and some of them to be very rare and curious.

I have allready sent them away by the Richmond Carrier, who will leave them next Wednesday at the Black Bull in Huntington, directed to Dr Knight at Bluntisham, the Carriage p^d so farr. The Dr has promised me to take care of their conveyance to Cambridge and if he is now at home will not neglect to perform it immediately.

I am

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble servant,

R. GALE.

The books thus generously offered arrived soon afterwards accompanied by a Catalogue; and it appears that shortly after their arrival some official of the College (most probably Sandys Hutchinson, the then Librarian) wrote to Roger Gale to say that for the most part the manuscripts corresponded with the Catalogue, but that there were three volumes he could not find, and some 23 or 24 which were not enumerated in the Catalogue. Mr Gale's answer to this letter is preserved in one of the Catalogues in Class O, and from this I copy it;

SCRUTON,
Octob. 15th, 1738.

S^r,

In answer to yours of the 6th which came to me by the last Post, I am glad the MS^{ts} I sent to the Library correspond so well with the Catalogue, for I must own I did not compare them before I putt them up for the Carriage, and the difference between them I can account for except in one particular.

Fol.¹ 40. Statutes of the Cathedral Church of York. This is a very incorrect transcript, with several remarks upon it from a private hand.

Fol. 342. Tho. Galeei Obſervationes in Aristotelem de re Poeticâ, Stephanum de Urbibus, &c. not so compleat and correct as to be layd open to publick view, therefore was with the former set back by me.

Fol. 354. Pardons, Assumption of our Lady, etc. I know not what is become of it, if I find it, it shall be sent².

The Rest are some that came to my hands when I lived in London, and were never entered into the Catalogue, except Bedae Historia Interfol. cum notis MS^{ts} 2 Vol. 4^{to}, which was put up with the others by oversight, but as the MS^t notes may in some measure intitle it to their Company, he may stay with them.

The Physico-Theologicall discourse concerning the Great and Small-pox³ was sent me by the Author to gett it printed, but is so whimsical a piece, and wrote in so obscure and hard a Style, that even Curl would not venture upon it. I am much obliged to the Master and other friends that are pleased to remember me, and desire my best services may be acceptable to them, and yourself, who am, S^r your most obliged humble Servant,

R. GALE.

In these two letters is comprised all that I know of the history of the presentation of the Gale manuscripts to the College. The books are placed in Class O near the south-eastern angle of the Library, where they occupy nine shelves (numbered 1-5, 7-10). The number of volumes catalogued by Gale was 430. Out of this total, however, two volumes were kept back by him, as we have seen; and, moreover, three numbers (9, 191, 265) are accidentally omitted in the numeration. This numeration has been continued up to 454 by the College Librarian, the added volumes being those referred to in Gale's second letter as having come into his possession when he lived in London. A few books have been placed at various times in Class O¹, which have no connexion with Gale.

A catalogue of the manuscripts in possession of Dr Thomas Gale had been published about forty years before the date of Roger Gale's gift. It forms part of Bernard's great Catalogi MStorum Angliae et Hiberniae (1697: Vol. II. pp. 185-195). A few words may be said about this, for it is one of the most obscurely constructed catalogues in Bernard's publication. Four hundred and ninety-one 'Libri' are enumerated, and these are divided into three sections, Libri Graeci (1-151), Libri Graeci et Latini (152-355), Libri Orientales (356-461)².

Only the first and second of these sections concern us. Taking first the Libri Graeci, 151 in number, I have to point out that the whole of these are comprised,—and must always have been comprised—in just thirty-one volumes. In other words, separate articles have been catalogued as volumes; though not by any means in all cases. To a less extent, this is also the case with the Libri Graeci et Latini. There should, judging from Bernard's numbers, be 204 of these; but, in fact, about 120 volumes contain the collection. There are certain items in this section which cannot be recognized on the shelves. They are

In all there are something like twenty-three volumes in Bernard's list which are not now in the collection: but this defect is more than compensated by the acquisitions of Thomas and Roger Gale made subsequently to 1697. The total number of volumes recorded by Bernard is below two hundred, while, as we have seen, the College ultimately received about 450.

The Gale collection is of a most pleasingly miscellaneous character. Hardly a department of ancient or medieval literature is unrepresented in it; it comprises books written in every century from the ninth to the eighteenth. There are books in Greek, Latin, English, French, Italian, German, Bohemian, Dutch and Welsh. There are excellent specimens of illumination, French, English and Italian, and many of the greater monasteries of this country have made important contributions to the collection. It will probably be of use to point out in this place some of the principal elements which I have succeeded in distinguishing during the process of cataloguing.

First, I would point out a new fact, namely, that a considerable portion of the library of Dr Patrick Young (Patricius Junius) has found a home among the Gale manuscripts¹. Dr Patrick Young (1584-1652) was, it will be remembered, a Biblical and Patristic scholar of reputation who was librarian to Prince Henry, James I. and Charles I. His life and literary relations are the subject of a careful monograph by J. Kemke (Dziatzko's Sammlung bibliothekswissenschaftlicher Arbeiten: Berlin, part 12, 1898): but I cannot find that the destiny of his books has been hitherto ascertained. Many of them were inherited (through his father Sir Peter Young) from his great-uncle Henry Scrimger. It has been asserted or supposed that most of these were given to the town of Dundee in 1618, and deposited in the vestry of St Mary's Church there, and that they perished in a fire which totally destroyed that building in 1841¹. It is on the other hand stated by Thomas Smith² that the most valuable portions of Scrimger's library passed into public collections through Dr Patrick Young's instrumentality. The latter of the two assertions seems to me to be nearer to the truth. One volume at least of Scrimger's own papers is among the Gale books: and, as Scrimger was a Scotchman and Greek scholar, I think it most probable that the various manuscripts of Scottish origin, and the bulk of the older Greek manuscripts in Class O, were once in his possession, and were afterwards owned by Young. A very large proportion of the transcripts of Greek theological tracts are certainly in Young's hand, and so are the notes in several of the older volumes. The dates and place-names (Exton, Bromfield, and the like), which occur in many of the transcripts, first shewed me the identity of the scribe.

The Catalogue of Lord Lumley's library³ must almost certainly have come through Young's hands: he was librarian to Prince Henry, who purchased the collection on Lord Lumley's death.

Next, there are important relics of the library of Dr John Dee, including the catalogue of that library. Most of the books I trace to him are alchemical and date from near his own time; but there are also one or two older manuscripts of considerable value. Dee's manuscript library was of great interest. It comprised some two hundred volumes, of which more than half, as I hope some day to shew, are still traceable.

A third class not inconsiderable in number consists of the transcripts of various kinds made for one or other of the Gales. These are for the most part Greek philosophical or mathematical works on one hand, and works of medieval English chroniclers on the other.

There are a good many medical note-books of the sixteenth century, mostly the property of one William Dun; while medieval astronomy, astrology and mathematics (especially ecclesiastical arithmetic, or Compotus), are represented by nearly thirty volumes. But a rough table of subjects which I have drawn up will give a better notion of their distribution than any further remarks. It will be found on p. xxx.

The collection has suffered some losses. Nine of the manuscripts sent by Roger Gale are no longer on the library shelves¹. Of these, four² are wholly or in part identifiable with manuscripts now in the British Museum. There, too, are portions of a volume of which the greater part is still in the library³. These volumes were all in or about the year 1840 purchased by the Museum from Thomas Rodd who had bought them at J. O. Halliwell's sale⁴. Another volume (O. 1. 72), which had also been acquired by Rodd from the same source, was recovered by the College, and stands in its old place. Possibly the remaining volumes of the series (all of them dealing with astronomy or mathematics) may be hereafter identified either in the Museum or elsewhere. It is perhaps unnecessary to add that no sort of blame attached either to Rodd or to the authorities of the Museum. I should like, in leaving the subject, to express a wish that the missing leaves of the very interesting manuscript numbered O. 2. 45 (it comes from Cerne Abbey, I may remark) could be re-united to their fellows at Trinity.

Another manuscript is beyond recall; namely, O. 4. 36, which was borrowed by Professor Theodor Mommsen and perished in the lamentable fire at his house in 1880. It was not, apparently, an indispensable or even a very important authority for the texts (Jordanes, the Antonine Itinerary, etc.) which it contained, and other copies of its archetype are yet in being: still, the loss of it is very regrettable.

¹ They are O. 3. 44, 49: O. 4. 36: O. 7. 2, 17, 22, 36, 44: O. 8. 16.

² Namely: O. 3. 44: O. 7. 17 (?), 36: O. 8. 16.

³ O. 2. 45.

⁴ On this matter see the article on Halliwell in Dict. Nat. Biog.

I should like, in sending out this catalogue of the Gale manuscripts, to be able to think that I had done full justice to the diligence which brought them together and the patriotism and generosity which selected so fitting a home for them as Trinity College Library: but I have no illusions on the subject. Specialists will find, as they must have found in previous volumes from my pen, plenty of unskilled labour, plenty of evidence that I lacked the knowledge of the tracts I was describing, and that I did not even know where such knowledge might have been gained. I must ask them, not only for their indulgence, but for their help. I will submit cheerfully to their chastening, if they will but accompany it with correction. Some of my readers, known and unknown, have supplied me with corrigenda for the first two volumes. For these I would desire to thank them, and would ask them to perform the function again for the third.

The Index which has been promised in previous Prefaces will not be found in this volume. It is in process of being made, and will be issued—I hope quite shortly—as a separate book. I wish to accompany it with a survey of the manuscript fragments from book-bindings etc., in the Library, and also with a full list of Corrigenda and Addenda to the three volumes of the Catalogue.

The work of cataloguing the manuscripts of Trinity College has been a long task, but a very pleasant one. The Vice-Master, the Librarian, the sub-Librarian and the rest of the staff—to say nothing of other members of the Society—have conspired to make it easy; the magnificent building in which the books are kept is itself an incentive to work; and the University Press has once again earned my sincere admiration and gratitude for the masterly way in which it has dealt with the “copy” I have supplied to it. I have sometimes thought of publishing a facsimile of a page of my manuscript. It would excite a lively sympathy for the compositors, but I doubt if my reputation would stand the shock.

Contents :

- I. Harpocratonis Lexicon in Decem Rhetores . . . f. 1
Headed in red Ἀρποκρατίων.

Ἄβαρις κύριον.

The MS. was collated by C. B. Scott for Dindorf's edition in 1852 from Ἄβαρις to Αἰγείων, from Νοθεΐα to "Ὅτι οἱ ποιητοὶ παῖδες", the whole of the letter ψ, as well as a number of scattered articles. "The MS. is carefully written, but with many omissions: e.g. the words Αἰγείδαι, Νυμφαῖον, Οἶον, "Ὅτι διαμαρτάνει, Ὀνήτωρ, Ὀργέων, Ὀρον, σκεῦος, Πυθαεΐα." Under ξηραλοιφεῖν and Ὀμηρίδαι etc. references to authors are omitted.

In 1897 Dr J. E. Sandys collated the letter Γ throughout, and examined all doubtful points in Β and Σ, on behalf of Dr Georg Wentzel of Göttingen.

Notes by Mr Scott and Dr Sandys are in this volume.

The text of Harpocraton ends on f. 52 b—ψίθυρος.

Notes follow on

1. ὑποκορίζομαι illustrated from Xenophon and Demosthenes.
2. τί ἐστὶ τὸ ἐν τοῖς δημοσθένους Φιλιππικοῖς· καὶ τὸ θρυλλοῦμενον τόδε ἀπόρρητον ἐκείνο· θεόπομπος ἐν λαῷ δεδήλωκε· φησὶ γὰρ καὶ πέμπει πρὸς Φίλιππον πρεσβευτὰς κ.τ.λ.
3. τί λυγμὸς, 1½ lines.
4. χρεῶν· εἰμαρμένον τέλος ζωῆς. αἰλιανὸς ἐπεὶ δὲ ἐς γῆρας ἀφίκετο τὸ κοινὸν τῇ πεπρωμένῃ χρεῶν ἐξέτισε καὶ τῆς προσηκούσης κηδεύσεως ἔτυχε.

The rest (3 lines) grammatical.

Ἐπειδὴ οἱ μακάριοι.
It is the spurious tract printed in Migne, P. G. x. 903.
The first leaf of this goes down to ἐν νῶ φέροντες (§ 2). After this another text begins abruptly (f. 31).
ἐν σφαγῇ· ὁ δὲ ἐξ ἐθνῶν θεὸς ἐν σαρκὶ καὶ ὁ μὲν τῇ σκιᾷ ἠτένιζεν· ὁ δὲ τῷ ἡλίῳ καὶ θεῷ προσέτρεχε καὶ οἱ μὲν δήσαντες χριστὸν ἀπεπέμποντο· οἱ δὲ ἐξ ἐθνῶν προθύμως ἐδέχοντο αὐτόν.
It ends with a long speech of Joseph to Pilate (δός μοι τοῦτον τὸν ξένον) and may be a bit of no. 2.
f. 30 is a second leaf of Hippolytus, and carries on the text to § 4.

See Wallace's Life of St Edmund of Canterbury.

On the same page are later scribbled verses to the Virgin, very faint.

On the flyleaf are recto. Nine lines of cent. xv.

2 fo. (text) ne quo.

It seems likely that the book is from Glastonbury. The acrostic on Dunstan as Abbot is an indication (though an unfinished later copy appears in a Canterbury book B. 14. 3) and also the remark 'Liber opt(imus)' which is in the style of the Glastonbury catalogue printed by Hearne (Joh. Glastoniensis ii. 423 sqq.). On p. 426 there is an entry :

"Encheridion Augustini : duo libri, unus bonus, alius inutilis."

On f. 12 the text of the Enchiridion begins.

Title in red capitals.

Incipit liber Enchiridion sc̄i augustini ep̄i ad Laurentium primicerium notariorum ecclesie urbis Rome, de Fide. et

spe. et caritate 12

Large initial D in black outline. The first two words Dici non, in green capitals filling a line: the next potest in red capitals which seem to me to have been supplied in cent. xii, over an erasure.

There are interlinear glosses, and a few marginal, in two hands, one a most beautiful minuscule. All seem to be in Latin.

The text ends on f. 109 b: et caritate conscripsi.

Then, in red capitals

Explicit enchiridion Agustini quem scripsit laurentio.

ff. 110, 111 are blank, save for the word enchiridion pencilled in cent. xiii? on 111 b.

On 112 a are some faint pen-trials.

On 112 b, 113 a is an acrostic (x, xi) of which a partial copy exists in B. 14. 3: I note the variants of this below.

2 fo. qui il por.

Contents:

1. A collection of receipts in French, in double columns of 22 lines.

The first portion is in verse, beginning f. i

Qui cest liure uodra entendre

Bele raison il poireit aprendre

Plusors choses il porreit oir
 Ki mult font bien a retenir
 Ce uous di io por cors humain
 Ki longesue poent estre sain.

The prologue ends on f. 2

Si enuie a et il me hiet
 Moi ne chaut gueres deus le siet
 Kar en tele chose me delit
 Ke tornera a graunt profit.

Text.

Por uertin.

Por le uertin pernez la rue.

The last piece in verse is on f. 23.

Espeirement de enfaunt.

Si uous uolez sauer en ame
 Quaunt feme porte malle
 La face est plus uermaille etc.

Then follows an

Esperment a plaies.

Treis bons freres estoient ke al oient almont doliuet etc.

and a collection of miscellaneous receipts in prose begins.

The writing changes from double to single columns on f. 33 and the hand appears to change for one leaf; then returns to the first hand.

This collection extends to f. 44 b, ending with a receipt

En contre festre sanz trencher.

2. A tract in single lines, 22-23 to a page 45

The first $2\frac{1}{2}$ lines carefully erased except the initial T and the title A doner medicine.

The text begins:

quant uodrez doner medicine a malades se regarde la-quele humor li abunde el cors.

The first few pages may be by another hand: but the first hand clearly resumes on f. 49 b and continues to 52 b. The last being a receipt for "oinement a goutte rose."

3. In a closer hand at first (25 lines), then becoming larger (21 lines).

A tract on diseases and cures (Amicum Induit) 53

Chascuns ueraiment et home et beste et oisel qui cuer a en soi a iiii humors.

Different hands appear between ff. 98 and 104: but I cannot find any real beginning or ending of a separate tract until
 f. 192

que om ait a fere por metre sor cancre

Explicit Amicum Induit, followed by a receipt in another hand.

A blank leaf follows.

4. Issi comence le sotil enseignement ypocras a ces disciples que mult li auoient requis coment il deusent uisiter li malades . 195 (194)
Li auctor dist au comencement de cest liure.
19 lines to a page.
The last words written by this scribe are on 211 b por oster la sauor de sa buche.
The quire is finished in a very bold rough hand.
Olibanum ceo est encens 211 b
It is on the characters of various simples.
5. By the scribe of no. 4.
A metrical tract de secretis mulierum 215 (214)
Prologe. Bien sachiez femmes de ce naies dotaunce
Ci est escrit por uoir de lor science
Denfant auoir et de lor enfantes.
Among authors cited are Hippocrates, Cleopatra, Galen.
It seems to end on f. 234 (232) b:
Sor la femele plus grosse la senestre.
The next two leaves are by the scribe of no. 1. They are in verse and contain miscellaneous receipts.
Por tecches en le uis.
La quele que soit dame ou pucele
Ki desire auoir la face bele.
The last:
Por iaunes cheueus auoir.
6. A tract in prose (21 lines to a page) illustrated with admirable drawings on the lower margins of the leaves. It treats de tote manere de plaies ke auenent al chef 239
A feiz auent que li chef est plaie en plusurs maneirs. This is identical with the beginning of the Chirurgia of Roger of Salerno, an imperfect copy of which follows it.
Other wounds and maladies besides those of the head are subsequently treated, and the tract seems to extend as far as
f. 296 b (Del limazun).
E metez sur le mal al plus chaut que li malade le poet suffrir.
7. In a quite different hand, double columns of 31 lines,
Chirurgia Rogeri Salernitani (without title) 297
Prol. Post mundi fabricam eiusque decorem —recipit uocabulum.
Capitula. De cura capitis 297 b
Text. De uulnere capitis 298
Capud uulnerari diuersis modis contingit.
Part II. begins on f. 311.
Part III. on f. 318. Part IV. seems entirely wanting.
It ends in the chapter De fractura ossis, 322 b —et si os bene consolidatum fuerit unguatur.
The last column, left blank, has been nearly filled with receipts.
8. In a hand resembling those in the earlier part of the book,
28 lines to a page.

- A religious tract beginning 323
 Qui uodra bel e beaus uestu apparer deuant la face ihesu :
 il couient quil ait une robe qui a anon confession.
 Then follows an exposition of the Commandments.
 f. 327 b is left blank, but the text continues on f. 328 and ends imperfectly with that leaf :
 Ceo sunt le deus gardeins que deu ad mis por garder ses.

The drawings in the book are :

On f. 24 b, in outline, touched with red :

A man with a staff, breaking the head of another on R., who has a spiky mace.

The text treats of wounds of the head.

This is an isolated picture. The continuous series of drawings does not begin till f. 239. These are in the very finest outline, sometimes washed with brown, yellow, and green, but more commonly uncoloured.

1. The drawing in the initial on f. 239 is not by the artist of the outline pictures. It has a brownish red ground and represents a seated physician to whom a man with bound head kneels : an attendant holds up a vessel. The doctor has a round cap with peak in centre.

2. At the bottom of the page a drawing under two round arches.

a. On L. a doctor seated : one hand raised, the other gloved, holding the R. hand glove. Cap as in no. 1. Patient reclines on R., one hand up, the other in a sling. His head is shaved and wounded : he puts out his tongue.

b. The Dispensary. Above are two rows of jars lettered.

DIAT. DIATE. DIAP. APOA. POP.

POAT. DIA. DIA.

Below, an attendant pounding with two pestles and mortar. On L. hang surgical instruments. In C., balances. On R. a second attendant mixing drugs with spoon (?) in large bowl.

3. f. 240 b. Doctor sits with scales, on L. Below is a round dish containing various ingredients. Two attendants, one pounds with two pestles, the other stirs a pot over a fire. Between them, a bowl holding four phials. A row of jars, not lettered, above.

4. f. 241. Doctor, hooded, in chair, smears ointment (?) on head of kneeling patient : a woman stands by.

5. f. 241 b. On L. doctor applies knife to head of kneeling patient who is steadied by an attendant.

On R. doctor puts forceps into the head of a patient held down by an attendant. A man behind produces round objects (? money) from a pouch.

6. f. 242 a. Doctor reads excitedly from a book on a desk. An excited patient with swelled face and hands to head.

7. f. 242 b. Doctor on L. sits and bores a hole in head of patient held between his knees, an attendant assisting to hold the body. The instrument is an auger (or trephine) held between the palms of the hands.

On R., doctor seems to be driving a crowbar into the man's head.

8. f. 243 a. Doctor with spatula directs an attendant in mixing drugs. Cusped arch above ; and four tiers of jars variously shaped.

9. f. 244 b. Doctor with floriated staff talks to patient in bed.
10. f. 245 a. Doctor uses forceps and plug to head of kneeling man.
11. f. 245 b. Doctor with balances. Attendant, full-face, pounding drugs. There are two discs on R.: one hangs on wall and shews four coats of arms, the other has drugs on it.
12. f. 246. Doctor with fingers in mouth of patient.
13. f. 247 a. Doctor extracting a huge arrow which goes right through the patient's head. He has a markedly anxious expression.
14. f. 247 b. He pulls an arrow out of the middle of a patient's back (who is prostrate and stripped to his drawers) with a forceps.
15. f. 248 b. He talks to a patient sitting on the ground. An attendant behind with jar rubs or holds the patient's head. Four jars above.
16. f. 249 a. Doctor talks to attendant mixing drugs: four large jars behind, with shields. Bowls on the ground.
17. f. 250 b. L., doctor hammers a bar into the head of a patient.
On R. he holds up what might be a sponge, or something taken from the head, and a cloth. The patient below, with an opening in his head.
18. f. 251 a. He cuts a patient's head with a knife.
19. f. 251 b. On L., he operates with mallet and knife. On R., with auger.
20. f. 252 a. He pours liquid through a funnel in the ear of a prostrate patient on a mattress.
21. f. 253 a. With an attendant, he pierces the stomach of a patient lying on a table.
22. f. 253 b. He sews up a wound in a patient's neck.
23. f. 254 a. He sits on L. and talks to attendant with balances; between them is a bowl on a fire. Above, two rows of jars, and bags (of herbs) hung up.
24. f. 254 b. Seated, he talks to an excited man in a close cap.
25. f. 255 a. He feels the head of a patient (or anoints it): an attendant brings a jar from the uppermost of two rows.
26. f. 256 b. Similar to no. 24. The doctor's legs are crossed: the patient's hands raised.
27. f. 257 a. He sears the upper lip of a patient: attendant blows the fire. The doctor has an iron in each hand.
28. f. 257 b. He feels the swollen nose of a patient.
29. f. 258 a. He sits with blank scroll. One attendant brings a plant and lays it in a dish containing others: a second pounds, a third mixes in a caldron, and holds up a plant. Fireplace on R.
30. f. 258 b. On L., the doctor pulls with forceps at a man's nose. On R., a beardless doctor applies an iron to a man's upper lip.
31. f. 259 a. On L., he applies an oval object to a patient's eye. On R., he operates with a knife on the eye. An attendant steadies the patient.
32. f. 259 b. He handles the bandaged head of a patient. An attendant on R. sits on a cushion pounding drugs. A row of kegs and bottles above.
33. f. 260 a. Seated on L. he holds balances. By him is a bowl in which are bags. An attendant pounding in C. On R., one with short rod looking at jars, of which there are four sets.
34. f. 261 a. Seated with staff, he talks to a man with R. cheek swelled. On R., he operates with knife on the eye or cheek: an attendant holds the head.

35. f. 261 b. Seated, he feels the bandaged face of a patient.
36. f. 262 a. Seated, he holds the head of a patient who stoops over a fire. On R., he talks to a patient whose face is covered with spots.
37. f. 263 a. Seated, he applies a small tool to the lip of a patient with spotted face.
38. f. 264 a. Seated on L., he has a small yellow dog on his lap, and holds balances. Two attendants on R., one pounding, one stirring bowl at fireplace. Above, three shelves of herbs, bottles, kegs, horns and jars.
39. f. 264 b. He applies a knife to the ear of a patient.
40. f. 265 a. He pours liquid through a funnel into the ear.
41. f. 265 b. He sews up a wound in the neck.
42. f. 266 a. He presses his thumb into the mouth of a patient.
43. f. 267 a. He sits and talks. An excited man on R. in shirt and drawers points to his stomach.
44. f. 268 a. He sits and talks to an attendant mixing drugs. Three instruments, one an auger, hang above.
45. f. 268 b. He opens the mouth of a patient and looks in.
46. f. 269 b. He handles the face of a patient who is steadied by an attendant.
47. f. 270 a. He applies a tool to the lower jaw of a patient held by a woman (?).
48. f. 271 a. Door on L. Doctor sits holding herbs. An attendant pounding drugs. Another stirring in a jar which stands on the capital of a column. A third stirs a pot.
49. f. 272 a. The doctor lances a round tumour on the L. shoulder of a patient held by an attendant.
50. f. 272 b. By another hand. A single seated figure. A scribble by him: pater est alfa et o, filius est uita, sp. sc. est remedium.

2 fo. Est animus.

Contents :

Horatii Epistolae.

with marginal and interlinear glosses in several hands.

The first, on Ep. 1. i, begins :

Hanc epistolam mittit or. ad mecenatem excusans se erga illum quod lirica carmina debeat scribere.

I have not detected any but Latin glosses.

Text ends f. 24 b

Rideat et pulset lasciua decentius etas

Quinti Horatii Flacci liber ultimus epistolarum explicit.

f. 25 a is covered with grammatical notes and verses (xii, xiii).

The most interesting are these :

Porticus est rome quo dum spaciando fero me
 Res querendo nouas inueni de saphiro uas
 Institor ignotus uendebat cum saphiro thus
 Thus socius noster tres emit denarios ter
 Vas tribus et semi solidis ego prouidus emi
 Hoc inconcussum dum tollere sollicitus sum
 Pro cophino mundo de uiminibus precium do.
 Ponitur introrsum sanum uas. inde memor sum Extrahitur fissum tristis miser inde nimis sum
 Si foret ablatum sicut positum fuerat tum
 Inter conuiuas magni foret hoc pretii uas.

Evidently an exercise in rhyming with monosyllables.

The verso is covered with moral sententiae, which are most if not all of them taken from the Epistles.

	de burgo Shastonie in Com. Dors.
	et Nicholao Payne de mottecombe.

The book consists chiefly of forms of deeds, with explanatory text, beginning

Carta est quoddam feoffamentum siue scriptum.

Among the first specimen charters are many relating to Compton, Norton, and Oxford. John of Gaunt and Richard II. are often mentioned.

The last item is a form of bequest, apparently unfinished. On the last two leaves are memoranda, badly written.

1063. MEDICA.

O. I. 39

Paper, $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$, ff. cir. 100, badly written. Cent. xvi?, xvii.

On the flyleaf: in two (or three) hands:

Bonum est mihi Domine quod humiliasti me.

W. Dun.

Chirurgia manibus medetur morbis.

The text begins with a heading:

De spasmo • i • conuulsione vulneri superuenienti.

There are thirteen chapters, the last:

De vulneribus tendonum neruorum et ligamentorum.

At the end of all is a rough list of remedies.

1064. CONSTANTINUS AFER.

1067. CORNELIUS AGRIPPA.

O. I. 43

Paper, $7\frac{1}{2} \times 6$, pp. 68. Cent. xvii, fairly written.

M. 5. No. 413.

The preface occupies four leaves. It is signed E. P. and appears to be in defence of Henr. Cornelius Agrippa. It begins:

Il m'est arriue en exposant ce present traite a la Censure du public q'une persone destude ma sugerè quelques mauuaises opinions quil auoit de mon Autheur Henr.
Cornelius Agrippa etc.

The text is headed:

Anima Magica Abscondita

and begins

On dit en commun Prouerbe, Bastir les Chateaux en lair.

It is a French version of Agrippa's Anima Magica Abscondita.

Paper, $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$, ff. 185 (150 numbered). Cent. xvi, in a current hand and pale ink.

Marked E. 8. No. 245.

An inscription in cipher and another erased on the flyleaf.

There is no title. The text begins

Ensieult lart dastronomie et de geomancie.

The treatise seems to be entirely geomantic.

It occupies 175 leaves and is in French throughout.

Then follows a page of English, and then, in another hand, four leaves of Latin, also geomantic.

I do not detect an author's name anywhere.

1071. REDMAN'S LIFE OF HENRY V.

O. 1. 47

Paper, $7\frac{1}{4} \times 5$, ff. 35 written + cir. 100 blank. Cent. xvi, in a good hand of the kind employed by Parker's scribes.

Marked No. 431.

At each end is a slip of a good xiith cent. glossed Psalter. On one of these is written: To be returned to Mr Buckland Bookseller.

On the title-page is the name of William Thresher and the date 28 Sept. 1690.

Vellum, uniform with the last, of which it formed the first part, ff. 78.

Marked C. 81. No. 213.

Collation: 1⁸ | 2⁸-7⁸ 8⁸ (wants 1, 8) 9⁸ 10⁸.

The first quire is a supplement of cent. xiv and is palimpsest. The lower writing is a sloping uncial of cent. ix in double columns, and the 8 leaves of the quire formed 4 leaves of the original MS.

The text as far as it has been read is Chrysostom. Adv. Judaeos Hom. iv. (1. 625, ed. Montfaucon). A transcript of part of the text made by T R is in the MS.

f. 1 is free from the later writing: ff. 4-8 are more or less defective.

Text begins on f. 2

Παροιμῖαι σολομῶνος.

Παροιμῖαι σολομῶνος υἱοῦ δα(νί)δ. Παροιμῖα ἐστὶ λόγος δι' αἰσθητῶν πραγμάτων σημαίνων πράγματα νοητά.

This quire only goes as far as iii. 11 μηδὲ ἐκλύου ὑπ'.

Another quire or more is gone. Then the original hand begins δουλεία ὥσπερ ἐκείνη μεγίστη δεσποτεία φυσική.

The first verse quoted is x. 5 b διεσώθη ἀπὸ καύματος.

The Comment. is complete with the exception of two leaves down to f. 78 ἐλκύουσα αὐτοὺς· ἀλλ' ἡ.

The concluding words are in O. 1. 54 as stated. They have been copied out on the flyleaf of this MS.

1080. BENEDICTUS LUCENSIS.

{ O. 1. 56

Text begins on f. 3

Cogitanti igitur mihi.

A quire seems to be gone after f. 16.

Text ends on f. 17 b: Et hoc forte sumus experti in exercitibus destructis in Italia. et sic patet rempublicam legi euangelicae non contra(r)iari. de quibus benedictus deus.

1081. MATHEMATICA, MEDICA, ETC.

O. I. 57

Vellum, $7 \times 5\frac{1}{4}$, ff. 101, varying numbers of lines to a page. Cent. xv and later: in several hands.

Marked C. I. No. 132.

Collation: $a^4 \mid 1^{10} 2^{10} 3^{12} \mid 4^{12} 5^8 6^{12}-8^{12} 9^8$ (2 canc.).

The book was partly written by, and belonged to, one of the family of Holdenby, or Haldenby (of Isham in Northamptonshire). A leaf at the end of the MS. (numbered 129) contains genealogical entries relating to this and other families, and there are several obits of them in the Kalendar at the beginning. The entries were communicated by Mr W. Aldis Wright to Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica in which they were printed on pp. 246, 247.

The first leaf of the preliminary quire a is blank. On ff. 2 b, 3 a, are two painstaking pen and ink drawings—not very good. The first represents a stag couching (or running: it is not easy to say which) by a tree, in which are a squirrel and an owl. A bird with a blank label in its beak, and a hare, are also present.

The second shews a stag gorged with a coronet, and chain attached thereto, running past a tree: a hound is about to pull it down. In air is a hawk and a lure, a squirrel on a tree and a rabbit in its hole.

On 3 b are Easter Tables 1571-1617.

On 4 a. English verses

In marche aftur the firste C
The next prime telle thov me
Tho thryd sonedaye aftur I wys Estur day for sothe hyt is and if prime on the soneday falle loke thow covnte hym firste of alle.

verses. The explanation follows.

Ends, perhaps unfinished, on 31 b. f. 32 is blank.

ff. 33-68 have been removed. They seem to have contained

Tractatus algorismi f. 33

Spera pictagore 55

Tract. de cautelis algorismi 57

On f. 69 begins another tract on Corium serpentinum.

Ego Iohannes paulus cum essem in ciuitate Alexandrina egipciorum

The flyleaves following this have part of a sermon or meditation (xiii, xiv) in pencil.

1084.

O. I. 60

Hebrew MS., now R. 14. 62. See Cat. of Heb. MSS.

1085. GERONTICON.

Paper, $7 \times 4\frac{7}{8}$, ff. 294, 26-32 and 19 lines to a page. Cent. xv, in two hands. The book has suffered severely from damp, the leaves at each end being fragments. It is now mounted on tracing paper throughout. (No. 433.)

It is a Γερωντικὸν or collection of ascetic anecdotes and precepts.

The first division-mark I detect is on f. 22 b.

περὶ νηστείας καὶ ἐγκρατείας τῆς ἀρμοζούσης τοῖς μοναχικῶς ζῶσιν ἀσκηταῖς (?) κατὰ θεόν.

The second hand begins at f. 107. It is ugly and bad compared with the first.

The last τίτλος begins on f. 267 b and is the thirtieth.

I believe this to be the volume which is described in the Cat. MSS. Angl. as follows:

6157. 323. De curandis animi adfectibus. Liber iste distinguitur in titulos multos; multaue adducit ex S. Diadocho, Maximo, Palladio, Ephraemo, Isaaco, et Barsanuphio Syriis, et ex aliis Asceticis Graece.

The catalogue then goes on to give the contents of what is now O. 7. 4 under the same number (6157). The two books are of the same size.

1086. HORAE.

O. I. 62

Vellum, $6\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{5}{8}$, ff. 149 + 48, 17 lines to a page. Two volumes, the second printed. Cent. xv late. (No. 434.)

The binding (cent. xvi) is semée with fleurs-de-lys and tears, and has the initials C. S.

At the beginning is an engraved title-page of L'office de la Vierge, Paris 1625, L. Louys Boullenger, of which the rest follows the MS. portion.

Collation: 1⁶ 2⁶ | 3⁸-10⁸ 11⁶ | 12⁸ (wants 1) 13⁸.

Contents:

Hours of the Cross (first leaf gone)	83
Hours of the Holy Ghost	85
Seven Penitential Psalms and Litany	88
Office of the Dead	103 b
Memoriae	143

The use is of Paris.

Most of the leaves have partial borders, of poor execution. The pictures are decent shop-work. They are:

1. f. 13. Large. St John on islet writing. Eagle on another islet on L.
2. f. 15. In text. St Luke writing at desk.
3. f. 16 b. In text. St Matthew. Angel holding book on L.
4. f. 18. In text. St Mark looking at his pen. Lion on L.
5. f. 19 b. Large. The Virgin half-length with book. Yellow glory. Two small nude angels look over a curtain behind her.
6. f. 23. In text. A similar arrangement: but the Virgin is crowned and carries the Child.
7. f. 26. Matins. Large. Annunciation. Angel kneels on R. with sceptre and points up to dove.
8. f. 46. Lauds. Visitation. Elizabeth on R. lays her hands on the Virgin's body.
9. f. 56 b. Prime. The Virgin, Joseph, ox and ass adore the Child who lies on the ground: stable and arras on L.
10. f. 61 b. Tierce. Two shepherds look up at demi-angel with blank scroll.
11. f. 65. Sext. Adoration of the Magi. Virgin and Child on L. One king kneels. Joseph absent.
12. f. 68 b. None. Presentation. Symeon nimbed on L. Round altar in C., a man in a hat behind it. Virgin and maid on R.
13. f. 72. Vespers. Herod throned on L. gives orders to three kneeling soldiers in gold armour.
14. f. 78. Compline. Christ throned on L. with orb. The Virgin, crowned, kneels to Him. An adoring angel in air.
15. f. 85. Hours of the Holy Ghost. Pentecost. The Virgin kneels in C. The Apostles R. and L. The Dove above.
16. f. 88. Seven Psalms. Bathsheba stands nude in a river. Her clothes on the bank. A castle on R., out of whose window, David, with crown and sceptre, is looking.
17. f. 103 b. Office of the Dead. Job seated on L. on straw. Ruins in the distance. On R. two friends address him.
18. f. 143 sqq. Small pictures in text. Memoriae. The Trinity. Father (with orb) and Son (shewing His wounds) side by side, half-length, on one throne and in one mantle. The Dove between them. They support an open book.

19. St Michael striking with sword at the face of a devil on L.
20. St John Baptist among trees with book : a lamb at his knee.
21. SS. Peter and Paul in a room, with key and sword.
22. St Sebastian bearded, bound to tree on R. Archer on R.
23. St Nicholas, as Bishop, blesses three children in tub on R.
24. St Mary Magdalene seated, with book. Casket on rock by her.
25. St Katherine with crown, sword and book.
26. St Barbara with palm and book. Tower on R.
27. St Genovefa with candle. Angel in air on L. Devil with bellows on R.

Contents :

Jerome's prologue (Frater ambrosius) f. 1

Pref. to Genesis 2

Genesis—2 Chronicles.

At the end of 2 Chron. the Prayer of Manasses is written in the margin by a neat xiv or xvth cent. hand, which has made other additions.

Ezra, Nehemiah, Tobit, Judith, Esther.

Job. At the end of Job are notes in the margin, the lessons, and Psalms, for the Office of the Dead.

In the text is also the LXX. supplement at the end of Job.

A blank leaf (200) follows.

The second part of the book is not in the same hand as the first.

There are small pictured initials, viz. to Proverbs. Solomon teaches Rehoboam.

Eccl. Two figures : damaged.

Cant. Virgin and Child.

Wisd. A King.

Ecclus. A nimbed woman holding a church.

Isaiah. Two men sawing Isaiah.

Jer. Jeremiah stoned.

Lam. Jeremiah at gate of Jerusalem.

Ezek. gone. Daniel. Daniel in the den.

The order of the books is Prov.—Eccl^{us}. Isaiah—Malachi. 1, 2 Macc.

Ev. v., Paul. Epp., Cath. Epp., Act., Apoc.

At the end of Apoc., in the xiv, xvth cent. hand, is

The most interesting feature of the MS. is that it was meant to be copiously illustrated: a space for a picture is left at the beginning of each chapter: but no sketches have been begun save two full-page drawings on 9 b, 10 a, illustrating c. ii.

The background of each is a roofed building with three round arches in front. In the first drawing is seen on L. an angel on horseback approaching Cuthbert who sits on a chair on R. He is a nimbed youth, and is holding in both hands his swollen R. knee which is raised. Behind him is another nimbed figure.

In the second drawing the figures on R., Cuthbert and the other, are in very similar posture. The Angel's horse is gone, and the angel on foot is handling Cuthbert's knee.

1089. MEDICA.

O. I. 65

Paper, three volumes of different sizes bound together. Cent. xvi, xvii and xv.

Marked L. 9. No. 400.

I. A note-book $7 \times 4\frac{3}{4}$, ff. circa 50, containing miscellaneous receipts in French and English, with drawings of apparatus. Towards the end are some accounts of serpents at "Avegnion" and "Bayon" in English. There is also a good deal of cypher resembling music in aspect.

II. An oblong note-book, $3\frac{3}{4} \times 5$, ff. circa 50: in the same hand I think as no. I. An index at the beginning. It contains receipts in French and Latin. The last leaf is, I think, a key to the cypher used in no. I.

III. Paper, 6×4 , foliated from 129 to 269. Cent. xv, in two chief hands, both ugly.

Contains at first miscellaneous receipts, mostly in English.

At 214 we have the heading

Hic incipit Tabula herbarum.

At 243 the hand changes and red is used for the sections and headings.

O. I. 78

A vellum roll, $10\frac{3}{8}$ in. broad and nearly 8 ft. long. Cent. xv, in a neat, rather current hand.

A Genealogy of the Kings of England.

The poem begins

(P)er hanc figuram inferius circulatam possunt sciri diuersa regna que quondam per Angliam et in Anglia distinguebantur. Verruntamen anglia oblonga est etc.

The paragraph ends with some verses about the principal cities.

De cuius laude quidam sic ait metrificando.

Illa quidem longe celebri splendore beata ending:

Testes Ely formosa situ couecestria visu.

(P)ost suprascripturam regnorum partitionem quibusdam regibus processu temporis inter se dimicantibus etc.

Then follows the Genealogy, beginning with Adelbrith filius Ailmundi regnauit triginta septem annis et mensibus sex

Brithrich Rex Westsexie.

These two names are placed on a level. They are enclosed in red circles with some ornament. The names are throughout in red, and there is accompanying text in black.

The roll ends with

Edwardus secundus post conquestum regnauit decem et nouem annis et dimidio.

The text ends (unfinished or imperfect) coronatus est in Regem apud Westm. citoque post scilicet 3^o nonas Aprilis translatus.

1104. HUGO DE KIRKESTALL.

O. I. 79

A vellum roll, $10\frac{1}{2}$ in. broad \times 8 ft. 4 in. long. Cent. xv late, in a current hand. The top is somewhat torn. The roll is partly written on both sides.

Narracio de Fundacione Fontanensis monasterii in Com. Ebor.

Reuerendo patri et domino Abbati de fontibus frater Hugo monachus de Kyrkestall salutem que nunc et est eternam.

Incipit.....

Placuit excellencie vestre pater venerabilis ut succincta narratione in acta redigerem quo auctore vel ordine.....nostra sancta scilicet fontanensis ecclesia cui deo disponente in presentiam presidetis etc.

The text on the front of the roll continues to the bottom and ends in a section headed de fundacione novi monasterii.

It is continued on the back of the second membrane, occupies the whole of that and the third, and ends on the fourth and last.

The last section is: De reuelacione trinitatis.

The subject is seemingly Abbot Radulphus.

The text ends

On the right-hand page a xvith cent. hand has written the names of the bishops of Ely as far as Nicholas West and of the Priors as far as John de Buckton.

Dec. 29 St Thomas occurs in the original hand.

f. 13 b is blank.

On f. 14 in a xiiiith cent. hand are lists of Abbots of Ely. Bishops to Hugo de Balsam.

Kings of England from Edgar to Hen. III. (continued later to Edw. IV.).

Bishops to Johannes de Ketene (Hotham and Montacute added) and Priors to Henr. de Bauns and J. de Hemingt(on).

There is also a sketch of a king seated full face.

On 14*b* is a pencil drawing unfinished, consisting of four tall round-headed arches; in the L. one is a Bishop: above, Sanctus Ethelwoldus Ep. In the next a king throned, with sceptre. Rex Edgarus. The other two are empty.

The very miscellaneous contents of the whole of the rest of the volume are entered among the Capitula of liber III.

They include a chapter on the Passion of St Thomas of Canterbury (f. 175 (189)b). This is followed by two blank pages.

On 177 (191)b begins what the Capitula call ff. 177 b–178 b are in the first hand, have no title and contain a brief survey of the hundreds (17).

Descriptio terrarum ecclesie sancte Æðeldrythe in uolumen protensum.

On 179 (193) the hand changes and we have the Inquisitio Eliensis Hic subscribitur inquisitio terrarum, etc. (Hamilton p. 97).

On 204 (218) b

Hic inbreuiatur quot carucas S. Ædeldreða habet etc.

2 fo. nullaue.

Marked B. 11. No. 72 (77).

There are admirable initials of two kinds; one, black outlines of interlaced work, with beasts' heads filled in in pink, the other (f. 34) resembling enamel work, the interlacings being filled in with red, green and other colours. Both these styles are found in B. 14. 3 (Arator), and the work in the two books is so similar that one is almost justified in assigning them to the same hand. The Arator is from Christ Church, Canterbury, and I assign this volume also to that house. In the oldest catalogue several *Prosper*s are entered.

Against this is the fact that at the top of f. 41 a an xith cent. hand has written a line with neumes alma uirgo aepeldryða hac que die plena suscepit celestia which points rather to Ely. The same hand continues, on f. 42 b,

In sanctitate fulgida et plena felicitate compleuit dies suos gaudia. Pulcra facie.

The writing of f. 34 is strikingly like that of B. 4. 27, also a Canterbury book: and on the margin of f. 43 is a note in the Christ Church hand of cent. xi, xii, unless I am much mistaken.

III. A leaf of the same date with some verses of a Psalm on the recto.

On the verso a letter of Jeremias Patriarch of Constantinople with an official endorsement.

The second half of this leaf is at the end: it formed the cover of IV., V.

IV. Fourteen leaves of a service-book. Cent. xiv, 28 lines to a page.

Begins Ps. cxviii. αὕτη ἡ ἡμέρα.

Then follow centos of various Psalms, for the greater feasts.

The last leaf is mostly in a later hand.

V. Three leaves in the hand of II. These are the last pages of O. 8. 33 and contain a full table of contents.

On the 3rd leaf is a colophon beginning ὥσπερ ξένοι χέρουσιν εἶδεν πατρίδα κ.τ.λ.

It states that the writer was Abraham ἀπὸ τόπων πελοπονίσου and that the book was finished on 27 June, ἡμερα ε̅. The year not given.

The second half of III. follows. It has an 'ascetic' anecdote and some devotional matter scribbled on it.

Collation: first quire gone | 1 gone 2⁸ 3⁸ 4 gone 5⁸–20⁸ 21⁶ (wants 6) 22⁸ (wants 1)–44⁸ (wants 4, 5) 45⁸ (bound after 46: wants 1, 8) perhaps a quire gone here 46⁸ (wants 1, 8).

Quires numbered on last leaf B–M⁵′; the last two have no number.

Psalter.

Begins imperfectly in Ps. vi.

νύκτα τὴν κλίνην μου.

There is a lacuna from Ps. xvi (xv) tit. to Ps. (xviii) xvii.

καὶ μετὰ στρεβλοῦ.

f. 149 b after Ps. lxxvii (lxxvi) is blank: Ps. lxxviii 1—ὅσα ἐνετέλατο is wanting.

Ps. cli. (f. 327) is mutilated and the beginning of ὥδῃ Μωυσέως is gone. Then follow ὥδῃ Μωύσεος ἐν τῷ δευτερονομίῳ (two leaves gone), Song of Hannah (beginning gone), Prayer of Habakkuk (beginning gone). Prayer of Isaiah (Ἐκ νυκτός) which ends imperfectly f. 336 b.

The writing is very good. The titles, and initials of verses, are in gold.

On the top of f. 334 are some scribbles of cent. xv in an English hand (Ego sum bonus, and letters of the alphabet), whose presence shews that the book has been in England since medieval times.

1143. IULIANI ORATIONES.

O. 2. 39

Paper, $8\frac{5}{8} \times 6\frac{3}{8}$, pp. 202 written, 28 lines to a page. Cent. xvi, in a fair current hand.

On the flyleaves are notes by Stephanus (?).

7. Ἰουλιανοῦ αὐτοκρ. μισοπώγων ἢ Ἀντιοχιῇσιν 147

In another hand, 20 lines to a page. At the top ἐκ τῶν Ἐρρίκου τοῦ στεφάνου.

Ends p. 202. τὰς ἀμοιβὰς ἀποδοῖεν.

Throughout the book are marginal notes, seemingly by Stephanus.

1144. MISCELLANEA.

O. 2. 40

Paper, $8\frac{3}{8} \times 5\frac{3}{4}$, ff. 163, 31 lines to a normal page. Cent. xv late, in a current hand.

Marked B. 4. No. 70.

2. On 6 b, 7 a in a later hand is a form of confession, arranged under the heads of the seven deadly sins.

Confiteor deo et beate marie.

Superbia invidia ira and accidia are treated. It ends unfinished

Sepe subtraxi me a diuinis etc.

7 b is blank.

VI. Paper, about 100 leaves, very roughly written (by W. Dunn) containing

1. Guinterius . Institut. anatomicis.
Multum habet momenti in curandis morbis.
2. Lectures on Anatomy.
3. Obseruationes anatomicae ex Barthol. Cabrallo aliisque anatomicis desumptae.

At the end are three leaves and part of a fourth of the Aristotelian index, of which there is a leaf in I. These leaves are in the letters A, D, and M.

1149. MISCELLANEA. CERNE ABBEY.

O. 2. 45

Vellum, $8\frac{5}{8} \times 5\frac{3}{8}$, ff. 131, 41 lines to a page. Cent. xiii (after 1248), in a fine clear hand. Written in England.

Marked B. 55. No. 121.

2 fo. quando duos or uiuis et regnas.

From Cerne Abbey: in the Kalendar is St Edwold, and there are many verses relating to Cerne on p. 11. St Edmund of Canterbury (canonized in 1248) is in the Kalendar.

On the first leaf is the name

William Armiger, natus fuit 1569 sepult. 1638 ap...

Stuck to the cover is a leaf of a service-book with a lesson for St Vincent and music on a four line stave (xii).

There is also a slip of an early xivth cent. MS. containing one column on each side of a French version of 2 Maccabees e.g.

Ceus qui o lui estoient et les despecierent par pieces et puis lur coulpirent les chies et les giterent hors. En toz ces choses seit deus benoiz qui a destruit les desloiaus pur ce que nous fussioms deliurés etc.

At the end are two leaves of other MSS.

1. Part of a leaf of a xiiiith cent. Vulgate in double columns, containing parts of John viii-xi.

2. A leaf of a Breviary (xvth cent. English) with lessons for St Lucy on the exposed side.

Collation: 1¹⁰ (wants 10) 2¹² (one quire gone) 3¹² (a quire gone) 4¹² 5⁸ 6¹²-8¹² (quires gone) 9¹⁰ 10¹² 11⁸ 12⁸ (wants 8).

The old numbering of the pages (xvii, xviii) gives a clue to the extent of the lacunae.

The table of contents in the manuscript catalogue is as follows: the items marked with an asterisk are now missing. I add the pages of the MS.

Collect. arithm. cum vers. retrogradis aliisque et quaestt. plurimae (?).

Compendiosa subtilitas Multiplicationis (30).

*de usu quadrantis et Cylindri.

*De compositione Cylindri et eius officiis.

 De quodam monacho adult. (344).
 Prognostica (347).
 Ignis Graeci compositio (350).
 Carmina Proverbialia (351).

The missing portions of the manuscript came into the hands of J. O. Halliwell, who sold them to Rodd, from whom they were purchased by the British Museum in 1838. They now form MS. Egerton 843, ff. 48 containing

- (1) f. 1. Jo. de Sacro Bosco de Sphaera.
- (2) f. 12 b. Definitions of stars. Luna dicta est quasi lucina etc.
- (3) 13 b. Hic inc. expositiones uerborum predictorum difficilium.
- (4) 15. Hic inc. spera mag. Roberti lincolniensis Episcopi.

- (14) 38 b. Cent xv, neatly written.
 Verses on Compotus, with gloss.
 Filius esto dei celum bonus accipe grates.
 Ending f. 39 a, followed by 3 blank leaves.
- (15) 40. De quadrante scire debes quod circulus solis duas habet medietates.
 —Hec quoque de practica quadrantis dicta sufficiant.
- (16) 43. Cum quadrantem componere uolueris.
- (17) 47–48. Tables of equatio, declinatio, altitudo solis.

The old foliation has been carefully erased and the leaves bound in a fresh order.

Of the above tracts nos. 6 (7, 8), 15, 16 followed p. 42, nos. 10, (11, 12) followed p. 102, no. 4 (5) followed p. 236, no. 14 may have been the last thing in the volume. It would not be possible to ascertain the proper places of the remaining leaves without unbinding the MS.

The contents of the portion of the volume before us are :

1. A Labyrinth drawn in red ink f. 1
Above
Non hic introeas nisi que sint hec tria dicas
Quod facit et non fit, facit et fit, non facit et fit.

36. A Collection of Proverbs 351
 The intention at first was to write the English equivalent in red and the Latin verse in black. This has only been done on the first page. The first English rubric is rubbed: the second is scholde faste.

 Allec cernentes famuli fleuere timentes
 Successura fore ieiunia piscis amore.

On p. 357 no room is left for interlineations, and the hand is probably another: on 359 there is room left again: not on p. 360-362: pp. 363, 4 are blank. The volume ends with 365, 366 which are full.

The last lines are

Ve mihi cum cuncti contradicunt mihi soli
Si nullus secum teneat ut non tenet equa.

On the top of the flyleaf in Mason's (?) hand is a note

1152. HERBARIUM.

O. 2. 48

Paper, $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6$, ff. 273, 26 lines to a page. Cent. xiv. The paper is very thick and soft and much worn at the edges, especially in the middle of the volume. 2 fo. Nomen herbe.

. Marked K. 15. M. 385.

The flyleaf is part of a leaf of a large Bible in double columns, of cent. x.; it contains part of Gen. xliii.

Collation: In quires of twelve, with not a few mutilations. The collation is almost impossible on account of the character and condition of the paper.

I think the work is German.

There is an enormous number of coloured drawings in the book, roughly done, but seemingly after good models, and possibly in the case of a fair number of the plants, from nature. Probably the whole number is between 800 and 1000. The large majority are merely pictures of the plants, but some are figure-compositions.

On 4^b (Herb. quinquefolium). A seated figure holds a cup of wine and a flagon. A man on R. with two javelins approaches.

15^b. Mutilated picture of a scene in a dispensary.

- 19 a. Doctor with cup. Man on L. with a pain in his stomach, attendant on R.
 19 b (Dittany). Doctor with cup and flagon. Man on R. with serpent at his feet.
 20 a. Hunting scene.
 21 b. Herb Paeony brought to a sick man.
 22, (23) b. A man riding to R.; a crowd of figures accost him.
 24 b. Medicine being dispensed.
 25 b, 26 a. Scenes with doctors and patients.
 27 b, 28 b, 29 b, 30 a, 35 a. Similar scenes.
 38 a. Dog pulling up mandrake.
 47 a. Three men with spears and dog approaching mandrake.
 53 b. Milking a goat.
 55 b, 56 a (Herba Salomonis). Monk and woman. Man holding up a herb towards two demoniacs on R. Devils fly upward out of their mouths.
 64 a. Scenes with epileptics.
 64 b. Full page. A City.
 65 a. Galienus et eius discipuli. Full page. He is throned between four armed men. Below are two disciples writing.
 65 b. Full page: a city.
 66 a. Ypocrates et eius discipuli. Full page. He is throned: three figures on each side, two with scrolls: under the footstool is an agonised figure supporting it.
 88, 89. Four figure-compositions, (1) 2 women and a man.
 (2) Man in agitated movement: man with spear.
 (3) Man and woman, (4) woman and man with scroll.
 93 a. Christ and the Virgin conversing: very rough.
 93 b. Two scenes, patient and doctor: 3 people sit under a herb.
 97, 99, 100, 101, 103. Scenes with patients.
 134 a. Man fighting a snake.
 134 b. Three people in a ship.

The text of the Herbal ends abruptly on f. 250 b with the herb forobos.

Then follows a tract on beasts and birds, with rough drawings, de lepore.

Rex egipciorum octauiano augusto • salutem • plurimis exemplis expertus sum victoriam tuam et prudenciam.

There are pictures of Hare, Fox, Goat, Boar, Bear, Wolf, Lion, Bull, a sort of human-headed serpent not named (f. 255), Elephant, Dog, Ass, Mule, Horse, Ram, Wild Goat, Youth and Maid, Cat, Grillus, Weasel, Mouse, Eagle, Vulture, Hawk, Crane, Cock, Partridge, Goose, Swallow, Dove, Crow, Hen, Hoopoe, Stork, Pie, Owls (4), Blackbird, Heron?, Parrot (cut out), Swan, another cut out, Peacock, Marmot?, Crocodile (a bird), Ostrich, Leopard, Deer, Unicorn, Dragon. The two last are on the last leaf, which is much mutilated.

1153. MEDICA.

O. 2. 49

Paper, with vellum flyleaves, $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6$, ff. 99 + 3, 38 lines to a page. Cent. xv (1450), very roughly written.

Marked E. 19. No. 256.

The recto of the first vellum flyleaf is covered with faint writing: on the verso are late receipts: on the second is an extract from St Bernard in English (xv) and on the third late receipts, and a classification of remedies (xv).

Text begins:

Ad Cancrum in virga.

It is a mass of surgical collections: English passages and charms occur: there are rough diagrams, and on 5^b is a paragraph beginning Ego dictus Johannes arderne Cirurgicus.

On f. 35 we have:

Practica mag. Joh. Arderne de Newerk chirurgici.

On f. 40 are drawings of instruments.

On f. 89 begins a separate tract:

Salus pauperum et infirmorum uel adiutorium salutis.

Ad honorem dei et d. I. C. et sue matris etc.

On f. 99: De pulsibus. Cum decem sint genera pulsuum.

Ending f. 99^b: et respiracione. Expl. de puls. quod Grene.

Followed by a table of cent. xvii.

1154. BURLEY DE VITIS PHILOSOPHORUM ETC. O. 2. 50

Vellum, $8\frac{3}{8} \times 6$, ff. 196, double columns of 27, 36, 31 lines. Cent. xiv, xv, clearly written, perhaps in Flanders.

Marked B. 59. No. 125.

Belonged to the Dominicans of London.

On the flyleaf is:

Donum fr. Joh. Tille mag^{ri} conuentui predicatorum lundon. a^o. doⁱ 1421 in festo purificacionis b. marie.

On f. 1 is what may be a press mark:

Q. P^m and the name Tille.

At the top is :

Maria Ihe. Johannes tibi ihesu laus lux eterna.

The book belonged afterwards to Dr John Dee. I do not find his name or mark in it, but it corresponds exactly to the following entry in the Catalogue of his MSS. (ed. Halliwell, Diary of Dr Dee, Camd. Soc., p. 67).

3. Compendium de vitis philosophorum anonymis. Ursonis de commixtionibus elementorum. Eiusdem aphorismi. 4° pergameno.

The flyleaves are from an unfinished leaf of a xivth cent. theological MS. On a blank portion of it is the 'set off' of a bit of Hebrew MS. A xvth cent. Index has been written on the inner pages.

 Vita S. gregorii pape.
 Passio Longini.
 Vita Geretrudis uirginis.
 Passio theodori presbiteri.
 Vita S. Cuthberti Ep.
 Vita S. Wlframni Ep.

An erasure of four lines follows.

At the end is a similar piece of a flyleaf. Near the top in a hand of cent. xiii is Passionale Sancti Ignatii • primum.

There seems to have been no other writing on it. This fragment fixes the provenance of the book to Christ Church, Canterbury.
 In the Catalogue (Edwards, p. 155) we have "Passionale S. Ignacii primum."

Before reading this leaf I had had very little doubt that the book came from Canterbury. The second volume is in a small hand unmistakably of the Christ Church type, and an initial on f. 121 is also markedly characteristic of the same place. It is not, unfortunately, possible to identify either of the MSS. in this volume with any entered in the Catalogues we possess, for all marks have disappeared.

At the top of f. 1 is the date 1588 and an owner's name erased.

Vellum, $11\frac{1}{2} \times 8\frac{3}{4}$, ff. 52, 28 lines to a page. Cent. x, in a fine minuscule, written in England. 2 fo. (text) limen tristis.

The initials are plain capitals filled in with colour, usually yellow. The metrical portions are written in rustic capitals.

There are interlinear and marginal glosses, contemporary, in a very beautiful small hand.

On the recto of f. 1 is a full-page drawing, by an English artist of the time, of a female figure (Philosophy) standing full-face with veiled head, holding in her R. hand an open book (tall and narrow) and in her L. a flower or short floriated sceptre. This drawing is in outline, touched with vermillion.

The book is from St Augustine's, Canterbury. In the Catalogue of that Library (p. 66) is the entry: Boecius de cons. phil. cum C.
 2 fo. limen.

{ O. 3. 9
5985

Vellum, $11\frac{3}{8} \times 9$, 7 + 149 + 4, double columns of 37 lines. Cent. xi and xii, in at least two very good hands.

Marked G. 21. (No. 306.)

The flyleaves at beginning and end have been strengthened with slips from an early xivth cent. Latin Psalter, very finely written (by an English scribe). Over this has been pasted a xvth cent. paper writing in English, of which there is a set-off on the flyleaf.

The presence of the Psalter fragment may indicate that the book was in England in medieval times.

The first two vellum flyleaves are blank. The next three are also blank, but have been closely ruled with lead; the next two are blank. At the end are 4 blank vellum flyleaves.

Collation: α^{28} (first and last leaves left): quires β – γ gone: $\iota\delta^8$ (wants 1, 8) $\iota\epsilon^8$ $\iota\varsigma^8$ | $\iota\zeta^8$ $\iota\eta^8$ $\iota\theta^{28}$ (wants 3–6) κ^8 | $\kappa\alpha^8$ – $\kappa\delta^8$ | $\kappa\epsilon^8$ | $\kappa\varsigma^8$ | $\kappa\zeta^8$ $\kappa\eta^8$ | $\kappa\theta^8$ – $\lambda\beta^8$. The four inner leaves of $\lambda\beta$ now precede the four outer. After $\lambda\beta$ a quire is thought to be gone. One other leaf remains.

The MS. was edited by Porson, in two volumes 4to, in 1822, at Cambridge. His estimate of the lacunae is as follows:

After f. 1 between 'Αἶσαι and 'Αγχίνοια 4 leaves wanting.

(This would make α a quire of 6 leaves.)

After f. 2 Διακριτος—'Επώνυμοι 100 leaves wanting.

(Probably 97: 12 quires of 8 and the first leaf of the next quire.)

After f. 42 Κοικύλλειν—Κρατηρίζων 4 leaves gone.

After f. 148 Φορητῶς—Ψιλεύς about 8 leaves.

After f. 149 about three.

It should be added that a leaf is lost after f. 8.

The scribes are thus distinguished:

A wrote ff. 1, 2.

B „ ff. 3-24.

(I believe these to be the work of one scribe only. It is a fine delicate sloping minuscule of cent. xi.)

C wrote ff. 25-52.

This is a bold upright round hand of cent. xi, xii?

D wrote ff. 53-69 b, l. 11.

E 1 „ 69 b, l. 12-end of leaf.

F „ 70-84.

E 2 „ 85-92.

G 1 „ 93-100.

E 3 „ 101-102 a.

G 2 „ 102 b, l. 1-116.

H „ 117-end.

This, though much smaller than C, resembles it more nearly than any of the others. The distinction between E and G is rather doubtful to my mind.

The writing of all the scribes depends from lines ruled with a dry point.

At the top of f. 1 in a hand of cent. xii? is:

χῶ τὸ δῶρον ἐκ νικήτα τοῦ λύχνου.

In the lower margin was written:

Ἐκοιμήθη ὁ δοῦλος τοῦ θεοῦ νικήτας ἀεδρος καὶ ἀνστάριος ὁ λύχνος.

Below was a date cut by the binder, which Porson read as 5ψζ (6707=A.D. 1199).

The whole of the first page is so blackened with galls that this second inscription is now illegible.

Given by Gale in 1668: at the top of f. 1 is: Officium B. Mariae.

It is probably no. 568 among the Trinity College MSS. in Cat. MSS. Angl. I. 2, p. 101.

Binding, old leather with stamps. (1) Fleur de lys; (2) square: man with spear between trees; (3) triangular: dragon. Clasps gone.

On ff. 14 b, 140 b is the name George Rayner of Peterburrough, which occurs in MSS. Sidney Sussex College, 95, 96. It has also the arms of Tunstall.

Binding: stamped leather over boards. The principal ornaments on the first cover are

1. Square: a fleur de lys with one quatrefoil in upper L. corner.
- 2, 3. Square stamps of leaves and flowers.
4. Square stamp of crowned lion.

On the second cover, 1, 3 recur, and also a small square stamp of a dolphin, a band of vine-ornament, two large lozenges with four-petalled flower, and the inscription in black letter

B hale.

Collation: 4 flyleaves | α^8 - $\iota\theta^8$ | 3 flyleaves.

The quires are numbered in the original hand in Greek: the first four leaves are marked in this way (e.g. in quire 5):

1. $\epsilon\omicron\nu$. 2. $\phi\upsilon\lambda\lambda\ \beta\ \epsilon\omicron\nu$. 3. $\phi\upsilon\lambda\lambda\ \gamma\ \epsilon\omicron\nu$. 4. $\phi\upsilon\lambda\lambda\ \delta\ \epsilon\omicron\nu$.

Also they are numbered by a Latin scribe from a to t, both in ink and in pencil: the latter marking ceases towards the end.

There is a third numbering (partial) in Arabic figures.

On the 4th flyleaf are these notes in the hand of Patrick Young:

(1) In hoc codice absunt Psalmorum tituli universi.

(2) $\Sigma\eta\mu\epsilon\iota\omicron\upsilon\tau\alpha\iota$ collatum esse hoc exemplar cum nouem codicibus.

Chrysostomo	} in Psalmos.	Ch.
Theodoreto		Th.
Euthymio		Eu.
Catena Corderii	} in Psalmos.	CC.
Catena Nicetae		CN.

In a later hand.

Cod: Ravii in Ps. 18.

As a matter of fact the collation does not extend beyond f. 17 (Ps. xxii Lat.).

At the top of f. 1 in a xvth cent. hand is

No. 1255.

The initial to each Psalm is in pale red, usually with some foliated ornament; quickly and rather poorly done.

Each verse has a small initial in the same red.

The first quire is written in a hand slightly larger than the rest: but I see no reason to doubt that it is the same hand. It seems not unlikely that the first quire was early worn out or lost, and supplied by the same scribe.

With the second quire (Ps. xiv) the Latin incipits of the Psalms begin to be added, and are continued to the end of the Psalter. There are none in quire 1. They are in a late xvth cent. hand, in a pale red not distinguishable from that of the initials.

Contents :

The Psalter.

Various readings from the authorities named above are noted in the margin up to Ps. xxii Lat. xxiii Heb.

There are interlinear Latin glosses in red (in the hand which wrote the incipits), in quire 2: they are few in number in the early part of the book, and soon cease. But in Ps. cxviii (cxix)—Ps. cxxii (cxxiii) they are fairly continuous. They then cease.

At the end of Ps. cl in red is written: Finitur psalterium.

Then follow

Ps. cli. Μικρὸς ἤμην.

Song of Moses (1) Exod. xv.

(2) Deut. xxxiii.

Song of Hannah.

Prayer of Habakkuk.

Isaiah xxvi. 9. Ἐκ νυκτὸς ὀρθρίζει.

Prayer of Jonah.

Prayer of Azarias.

Song of Three Children.

Magnificat.

Benedictus.

Prayer of Hezekiah.

Prayer of Manasseh.

Ending f. 151 a.

f. 151 b and the flyleaves are blank.

The interesting point about this MS. is that it is written in the same script as the well-known Leicester Codex of the New Testament.

See Rendel Harris, The Ferrar Group (1900: pp. 24 sqq. and plate 1). I am myself inclined to think that the Latin glosses in the MS. are by an English scribe: at any rate not by an Italian.

Paper, 11 $\frac{5}{8}$ × 8, ff. cir. 400, 20 lines to a page. Cent. xvi, in a very ugly hand.

No old mark. (H. 10. No. 324.)

Contents :

Eight leaves in the hand of Patrick Young (?), containing Catena in Psalmos

προσευχὴ Μωυσεῖ τῷ ἀνθρώπῳ τοῦ θεοῦ ψαλμ. πθ.

1. Καλὸν ἀξίωμα τῷ Μωυσῇ

—Μακάριοι γὰρ οἱ ἐλεήμονες ὅτι αὐτοὶ ἐλεηθήσονται (f. 2).

f. 3 blank.

2. καὶ πέρας ἔστι. τὸ μὲν οὖν ἀληθῶς τε καὶ κυρίως μακάριον ἡ θεία φύσις λέγοιτ' ἂν εἰκότως.

On Ps. 1 supplying a lacuna in the text of this MS.

3. Further scholia on Pss. i–iv, xiv, at the end of which is:

Catalogue) at Trinity College, Dublin: paper, cent. xvi.

The verso of the last leaf is stuck to a flyleaf. The last 3 leaves are a repetition of part of the comment on Ps. xlvii. The text goes down to Ps. lxxii.

O. 3. 16

Paper, $11\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{8}$, ff. cir. 100. Cent. xvii, very neatly written.

Text follows.

1190. AUTOLYCUS.

{ O. 3. 18
6081

Paper, $11\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$, ff. cir. 150. Cent. xvii, very neatly written. Each page divided horizontally into two halves with red lines.

Marked H. 9. No. 323.

By far the greater part of the book is blank: but past the middle of it are 33 leaves written, containing

Αὐτολύκου περὶ ἐπιτολῶν καὶ δύσεων βιβλίον πρῶτον
Τῶν ἀπλανῶν ἀστέρων αἱ ἐπιτολαὶ τε καὶ δύσεις.

The Greek text is written in the upper division. In the lower it was intended to write the Arabic version, but only one page of this has been done.

The second book begins after 15 leaves, and occupies 16 leaves. Then follows

Αὐτολύκου περὶ σφαίρας κινουμένης,
Ὁμαλῶς λέγεται φέρεσθαι σημεία.

Ending unfinished on the 3rd leaf with line 1 of section iv.

1191. REGISTRUM BREVIUM.

O. 3. 19

Vellum, $11\frac{1}{4} \times 8$, ff. 243, 40 lines to a page. Cent. xv, closely written. In old binding of skin over boards.

Marked G. 20. No. 311.

Collation: In quires of 8, two of 10: last of 8 (5 and 7 canc.).

The catchwords are in some cases ornamented with shields etc.: one shield that occurs more than once has a bend dexter engrailed az. with 3 estoilles of five points arg. (see f. 139 b).

Registrum Brevium.

1. Breue de Recto Patens (4 Hen. IV.?) as to Will. Pullesden.

Fine initial of characteristic English style.

The last division is de presentacione. The last brief de presentacione ad prebendam (Will. Ashton's presentation by Robert Bp of Chichester to the prebend of Stone in the free chapel of Hastings).

1192. STATUTES.

O. 3. 20

Vellum, $11\frac{5}{8} \times 8\frac{1}{2}$, ff. 180, 40 lines to a page. Cent. xiv early, well written in law hand.

Binding: old red skin over boards: clasps gone.

Marked H. 17. No. 331.

On the flyleaf the name Craddeley (xiv, xv) and Ego Will^{mus} Bekke. A piece has been cut out of the leaf which is stuck to the 1st cover.

On the flyleaf at the end, in a good hand of cent. xiv early, are these inscriptions.

Aat (? Dat) ic blithe sii • dat ghi minne mi • Mi soete lief en ghi.

Al mi troest siin ghi • theron god sta mi bi.

Given by ? .

The parleament holden at Westminster the IIIJth day off February the thirde yere off oure soueraigne lorde Kyng Henry the VIIJth.

It is a picture-roll representing the Lords in procession. Their arms and names are written and emblazoned above. The drawing is not of the first class, but is fair. The faces can hardly be regarded as portraits. All are beardless.

First come the mitred Abbots, their names and arms in many cases left blank.

Th Abbot off tewkysbery lord Henry Beley is first. There are 25, the last being the Abbot of Westminster.

Next the Bishops, whose shields are blank, and their names added in a later hand.

Sir Thomas Skerryngton, Bish. of Bangor, is the first, William Warham, Abp of Canterbury, is the 20th and last.

The Duke of Buckingham follows, preceding the King, who walks under a canopy.

The Peers are headed by Thomas Grey Marquis of Dorset. Their names and arms are in the original hand, the 30th and last is William Lord Conyers.

O. 4. 4

Vellum, $13 \times 9\frac{3}{8}$, ff. 180 + 4, 41 lines to a page. Cent. xv, in a fine clear Italic hand.

Original binding with circular stamp of nimbed eagle on book. Lozenge stamp of nimbed dove, and other decorative stamps. 2 clasps gone.

Marked F. I. No. 261.

2 fo. Etruria.

At the bottom of f. 1 is the shield very carefully painted of Matthias Corvinus, King of Hungary, and the initials M.A. On either side of this is a wreath in which is an angel holding a shield. That on L. is gules two fesses wavy arg.: that on R. is erased.

There is a partial border of white scroll-work on red and green, and an initial of a youth in plate armour half-length facing R.

On the flyleaf

Epithauium Mathie nouissimi Ungarorum regis

Mathias iaceo rex • hac sub mole sepultus

Testatur uires austria uicta meas.

Terror eram ...do, metuit me cesar uterque

Mors potuit tantum sola nocere mihi.

In the cover is the name De Buebenhofen, and a note on the fondness of Alphonsus (of Naples) for reading Livy.

At the end :

Nobilis ac strenuissimus eques dominus Johannes Caspar de bubenhoffen donauit propter suam in me beniuolentiam michi hunc e(ximi)um et elegantissimum librum anno 1496 die 4^a mensis Octobris marescalatus sui officio sub sigillo Ill^{mi} ducis eberhardi de wirttemberg et W(al)deck.

A rough sketch of a shield on R.

Also a badly written inscription which I read thus :

Liber iste spectat(?) nunc(?) ad filium legitimum eiusdem de Greifen qui nominatur hieronymus..

Obiit autem die (blank) anno 1532.

Nobilis d^{ns} ad Greyphenstain d.d. Nobili D^{no} Jo. Mel. de Buebenhofen A^o 1530.

There are also two carefully erased inscriptions.

Collation : 2 flyleaves. 1¹⁰—18¹⁰ 2 flyleaves.

Each book has a good initial of white branch-work on red, blue and green grounds ornamented with white dots.

1236. GREGORII MORALIA.

O. 4. 5

Vellum, $13\frac{1}{4} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$, ff. 205, double columns of 37 lines. Cent. xii late, in a good black hand, rather pointed.

Large initial on f. 1, mainly in red and green.

Binding. Old; white skin over boards: two clasps gone.

Marked F. 2. No. 262.

2 fo. or uero eius.

At the end is this colophon:

Dompnus Eudo de Mere fecit scribere hunc librum et dedit domui beati thome martyris. Anima eius et anima patris eius Geruasii et omnium fidelium anime per misericordiam dei requiescant in pace. Amen.

This in my opinion shows the book to have belonged to the Abbey of St Thomas of Lesnes (called also Westwood) near Woolwich. It evidently had a good library: several volumes from it are at Gonville and Caius College.

Collation: 1⁸-11⁸ (7 canc.) 12⁸-26⁸ (wants 7, 8).

O. 4. 6

Paper, $13 \times 8\frac{1}{4}$, pp. 207, 29 lines to a page. Cent. xviii (1701), very well written.

Marked A. 33. (No. 33.)

In the cover is this note:

Transcribed from a MS. in Oxford Bodleian Library Anno 1701 by y^e hand of a Sweede.

There is also a letter from J. Hudson (Univ. Coll. Oxf. Nov. 9, 1701) to Dr T. Gale, accompanying the transcript. The scribe's name is not given.

The MS. from which the transcript was made appears to be Laud. Gr. 43 of cent. xvii.

Vellum, $13\frac{1}{8} \times 9\frac{3}{8}$, ff. 170 + 2, double columns of 32 lines. Cent. xii early, in a hand much resembling that of Christ Church, Canterbury.

Fine outline initials.

Old binding: rough white skin over boards: strap and pin fastening gone.

At top of f. 1 is the number No. 625 in a xvith cent. hand.

Marked F. 3. No. 263. 2 fo. uolentibus.

From Rochester. At the bottom of f. 1 is (xiii) liber de clauastro Roffensi per G. Camerarium.

The contents are identical with those of B. 2. 34, a Christ Church book; and the initials are of the same type.

I have little doubt that the book was written at Canterbury and bought for Rochester. It occurs in both the Rochester Catalogues printed in Archaeol. Cantiana iii. p. 58 and vi. p. 122: in the first it is no. 52, in the second (and older) no. 46.

On the flyleaf is a table of contents by the original scribe, headed

In the Litany :

Martyrs: Georgi Thoma erased...Cesari Albane Oswalde Aedmunde.

Confessors: Marcialis...Augustine cum soc., Dunstane, Cutberte.

Virgins: Fredeswida.

Suffrages: Ut regibus (erased) et principibus etc.

The Office of the Dead has been oddly treated. The first leaf has been pasted on to the last leaf of the Litany, and is almost gone. This last leaf of the Litany was seemingly a xvth cent. insertion.

The ornamentation of the book is interesting. It is of several periods.

1. Initials historiated and decorative, original. Also pictures, two leaves of which only survive, before Ps. cix.
2. Initials cut from a xiiith cent. Bible and pasted on the margins of the leaves.
3. xvth cent. insertion before the Psalter.

The last named comes first in the volume.

On f. viii b is a full-page picture of a man in civilian's dress kneeling face R. at a prayer desk, with open book, under a canopy. The man's features are undistinguishable.

Round the arch is written :

Of your charyte pray for the soull of wylliam clarkson ferrar (ferear) of london and margeret hys wyffe and all þere childaris.

On f. ix a border with effaced shield (quarterly) in the lower margin.

Large initial. Christ as the Man of Sorrows standing in the tomb, bleeding, with chalice before Him, surrounded by the Evangelistic emblems; the names of the Evangelists on scrolls.

Original decoration.

Beatus vir. Large initial. Jesse sleeping: from him springs a tree with seven figures; at the sides, four nimbed prophets with scrolls. In C. (1) David seated crowned, with harp, and sword with Goliath's head on it. (2) The Virgin suckling the Child. (3) Christ throned, with book, blessing.

Gold ground.

On the margin is pasted an initial I from the Genesis of a xiiith cent. Bible, containing seven elliptical medallions on gold ground, illustrating the days of creation and God resting on the seventh day.

f. 3 a. Initial H from Exodus: Moses horned, followed by elders, smites the rock.

On f. 8 a has been an initial from the Bible, now gone, so also on ff. 7, 9, 12, 15, 19 etc.

f. 22 a. Initial F from ? Reg. King admonishing a man.

f. 22 b. Dominus illuminatio. Decorative initial: grotesque man with sword.

f. 25 a. Initial F from 2 Reg. Man in mail beheading another man.

f. 30 a. Initial P from 4 Reg. Ahaziah falls out of tower.

f. 35 a. Initial I. Prophet with book.

f. 36 b. Dixi custodiam. Decorative.

f. 38 a. Initial T from ? . Sleeping man by a tree, cloud ? above.

f. 40 a. Initial I from Esther. A queen.

f. 42 a. Initial P from Proverbs. Man seated, with large green rod, teaches a naked boy with a book.

Quid gloriaris and Dixit insipiens have large decorative initials.

At Exaudi deus. Initial A. A man (Habakkuk ?) lowers a basket through a roof: a man inside stretches up his hands.

Salvum me fac. Decorative.

At Attendite. Initial I. Prophet with scroll.

Exultate. Decorative.

At Venite exultemus. Initial I. Prophet with book.

Cantate. Decorative.

Domine exaudi. Decorative.

ibid. Initial I. Prophet with book.

Ps. ciii Lat. Initial F. (Luke). Luke writing: ox-head in cloud.

civ — — I. (John's Gospel). Nimbed deacon or priest with book.

cv — — H. (Prol. to John). John writing. Eagle's head.

cvi — — P. (Acts). Ascension. Virgin and Apostles: feet of Christ above.

cviii Deus laudem P. (Romans). Paul writing.

Followed by two blank leaves, then on the inner side of the next two leaves, a set of pictures, six on each page, on gold grounds ornamented with incised lines and patterns.

All those on the left of the first page are under three arches, the central one a trefoil: those on R. are in a lozenge inscribed in a quatrefoil.

1. The Betrayal. The Kiss of Judas. Malchus wounded.
2. The Scourging. Christ full-face. Two tormentors.
3. Bearing the Cross. Two men behind Christ with clubs, one in front appears to grasp His nimbus.

4. Crucifixion. A man nailing the feet with one nail.

Two figures on each side: the outermost, spectators, then on L. Longinus pierces the side and rubs his eyes, which have blood on them. He is beardless and unarmed. On R. a man with reed and bucket.

5. Deposition. The Virgin on L. takes the R. hand: a man supports the body. John on R. Another detaches the R. hand by means of pincers.

6. The angel seated on the elevated end of the lid of the sepulchre. The three women on L. Three soldiers lie below.

Second page. The pictures on L. are lozenge inscribed in quatrefoil, those on R. under 3 arches, the central one a trefoil.

7. Descent into Hell. Christ with resurrection-cross leads Adam and Eve to L. out of Hell mouth. No other figures.

8. Christ stands between trees with resurrection-cross. Magdalene prostrate on R. wipes His feet with her hair.

9. The two disciples in cloaks going to Emmaus. Christ, opposite, talks to them.

10. Trees on L. and R. Thomas (tonsured) kneels: his hand guided by the risen Christ to His side. No other figures.

11. The Apostles. The Virgin in C. Christ's feet seen above in cloud.

12. The Apostles seated, the Virgin in C. Paul with sword, Peter with keys. The Dove descends. Flames over the Apostles' heads.

Another blank leaf follows.

Probably the earlier scenes of Christ's life were represented in pictures, now lost, which preceded Ps. i.

Dixit dominus. Decorative initial.

Ad dominum. Decorative.

Fifteen more initials from the Bible are pasted on to other leaves. All but one are taken from the Pauline Epistles, and represent Paul writing or addressing one or more persons. One is an initial I, probably from a Catholic Epistle, and represents an apostle with a book.

Similiter in secundo memento sex genitiui.

1. Patris matris aui Cardinalis fratrum: consanguineorum.

2. Pape sexti Innocentii Cardinalis hispanie etc.

78 b is blank.

Two popes may be meant. Sixtus IV. 1471–1484, and Innocent VIII. 1484–1492. No Cardinal at this time was named Innocent. The Cardinal Abp of Toledo was Pedro Gonsalvo de Mendoza, d. 1495.

The next seven leaves are in two hands of cent. xv, xvi.

Festa palatii Apostolici 79

Modus et ordo seruatus in publicis sessionibus sacri concilii Constantiensis 80

At top of f. 81 in a xvth cent. hand is Nicolaus Riccardius.

There are fine decorative initials, mostly on gold grounds, throughout the book. The most considerable piece of ornament is on f. 15 b where a large border of conventional red, blue and green foliage on gold ground has been added, I think in cent. xvi, in a very coarse style. There is a historiated initial of a Bishop in cope and mitre kneeling in a church before an altar, on which are chalice and host. Behind him two surpliced clerks. In the lower margin a shield, within a wreath, and surmounted by a Cardinal's hat. The shield is or a bend dexter sable.

The book was written, I expect at Rome, for the trade, and purchased by the prelate who had this border and shield added.

The catalogue of the manuscripts was printed by J. O. Halliwell for the Camden Society in 1842, with the Diary of Dr Dee (pp. 65-87).

There are a good many marginal notes by Dee throughout, showing to some extent what losses he sustained through the riots in his house at Mortlake.

Each volume has opposite to it, added later by Dee, the letter T, or Fr.

MS. Harley, 1879, is another autograph copy; and in MS. Add. 35213 is another catalogue, perhaps of earlier date, also written by Dee.

The decoration of the book though imperfect is very good. The larger initials are of good ivy-leaf pattern and there are a certain number of paintings left, viz.:

1. f. 35 b. Comment Jason ala conq're la toyson dor.

Chequered ground: a ship in full sail filled with men: a red standard at the prow with a gold leopard's head.

2. f. 50 a. Red ground with gold pattern: Achilles and Patroclus in gowns received by the priest of Apollo (in blue robe covered with gold A's): attendant in scarlet. The temple is a double stone niche containing two gold statues of men with shields, standing on a pink base.

3. f. 54 a. The breadth of the page. Ground of dark blue foliage-work. The landing of the Greeks: they are in ships, with gangways thrown out to the land. On L. the gate of Troy. A great fight is going on.

4. f. 68 a. Breadth of page. Chequered ground. A battle scene: a dead Centaur with bow and arrow (le Roi Sentipus) lies in front.

5. f. 80 b. Breadth of page. Pink ground with gold pattern. The death of Hector. He stoops from his horse towards a crowned man in plate armour who lies dead. Achilles on horseback pierces him in the back.

6. f. 93 a. Breadth of page. Red ground with gold lines. In the temple of Apollo (a stone canopy on four pillars) Achilles and Antilochus defend themselves against a crowd of Trojans on R., several corpses lie in front of them. The image of Apollo is a gold warrior seated on a stool: he holds his shield up before his face.

7. f. 107 b. Breadth of page. Death of Polyxena. Chequered ground. In C. on a large oblong pink stone platform. Polyxena in scarlet kneels facing R. Her neck is wounded. Pyrrhus in plate armour is about to strike again. At each end stands a group of warriors.

1266. AETHICUS ETC.

O. 4. 36. (37 in old list.)

Destroyed in 1880 in a fire at the house of Professor Theodor Mommsen, to whom it had been lent by the College.

It contained

Aethici Cosmiographia
Chronica Jordanis
Itinerarium Antonini

and was, as stated above under O. 4. 34, the second part of that volume. In Mommsen's edition of Jordanes (Mon. Germ. Antiquiss. IX.) it figures as an authority of the third class. Its symbol in that edition is X.

Paper, $12\frac{1}{4} \times 8$, ff. cir. 60 written. Cent. xvi, in a fairly good hand, probably the author's autograph.

Joannis Brodae Turonensis in Oppiani Halieutica Annotationes.

The Cynegetica of Oppian, and Quintus Smyrnaeus and Coluthus, are mentioned on the title page: but the volume (which is not full) only contains notes on the Halieutica.

Additions—in the original hand—have been made frequently, by means of pasting slips on to the leaves.

The author, Jean Brodeau, died in 1563.

Paper, $12\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{4}$, ff. cir. 250. Cent. xvii early, beautifully written.

The Royal arms (of James I.) are stamped in gold on the covers, with a label of 3 points. Probably the book belonged to Henry Prince of Wales.

Marked H. 26. No. 340.

Catalogue of Lord Lumley's (?) Library.

There is no title: a title page which had been prepared is quite blank.

The books are arranged according to subject, and within that alphabetically and in sizes thus:

Theologi. A in folio—in 4^{to}—in 8^{vo}—in 16^o.

The last division is Musici.

Throughout, manuscripts are included, but are not kept separate from the printed books.

The volume is entered in all the manuscript catalogues of the Gale Collection as "Catal. Biblioth. Regiae in palatio S^{ti} Jacobi."

But an examination of the book has convinced me that the Library here catalogued is that of Lord Lumley (d. 1609), an excellent collection, of which far less is known.

In the first place it contains books which never were in the Royal Library, e.g.

“Biblia vetusta quondam Gundolphi Episcopi Roffensis manuscript,” which is now in the Phillipps Collection at Cheltenham, no. 3504.

In the second place, mention of Lord Lumley’s name occurs frequently, and in such a way as to show that he must have been the owner of the Library, e.g.

(Theologi in 16^{mo}) Precatiunculae breues manuscript gathered by my Lorde Lumley for his vse.

(Historici in 8^{vo}) John Philippes verses of newe yeares giftes giuen to my Lorde Lumley manuscript.

In the third place, the handwriting and arrangement of the catalogue closely resemble those of the small and comparatively useless catalogue of Lumley’s books preserved in R. 14. 24. It seems to me that there are indications that O. 4. 38 is slightly the later in date.

In R. 14. 24 there are hardly any dates. In O. 4. 38 the latest date I have found is 1607.

The history of Lord Lumley’s Library awaits a fuller investigation. It is usually said that Prince Henry purchased the whole: but it can be shown from this Catalogue that that assertion is incorrect. Moreover the Catalogue includes several MSS. now in the Cottonian collection, e.g. King Athelstan’s Psalter, and the miscellaneous volume now called Tiberius B. V.

1283. ROMANCE OF GENERYDES.
 LYDGATE'S TROY BOOK ETC.

} O. 5. 2

Vellum, $17\frac{3}{8} \times 12$, ff. 211, double columns of 50 and 48 lines. Cent. xv, in several good clear hands. Fine decorations of characteristic English style.

In the original binding of white skin over boards.

Marked A. 2.

On f. 190 b in a hand of cent. xvi early is: Antonius Thwaites me possidet: very carefully written. The name of Henry Thwaites is scribbled on f. 211 b.

On the margins of the leaves in many places shields are carefully emblazoned, and the fore-edges have also been painted with shields. This latter ornamentation (as Mr W. Aldis Wright points out in his Preface to Generydes, edited by him from this MS.) does not extend over the edges of the portion of the MS. which contains Generydes, though it has shields painted on the margins of its leaves. It is probable therefore that Generydes once formed a separate volume. I am unable to distinguish the writing of Generydes from that of the rest of the book.

As to the owners of these shields, Mr Wright says (after mentioning the occurrence of the name of Thwaites): "Anthony Thwaites may have been the son or descendant of John Thwaites of Hardingham, Norfolk, who married Anne, daughter of Sir William Knevet, and died 22 Hen. VII, leaving a son Anthony (Blomefield's Norfolk, v. 1198, folio ed.). The book has evidently been in the Thwaites and Knevet families, for their arms are found in various combinations on the margins; and as the Thwaites arms do not appear in the first part, which contains the story of Generydes, whereas the Knevet arms are of frequent occurrence, it is possible that this may have belonged originally to the Knevet family, and may have been bound up with the Lidgate portion after the above-mentioned marriage of John Thwaites with Anne Knevet. The other coats of arms I have been unable to trace with any certainty. To do so would involve a minute and curious, but certainly lengthy investigation, and is altogether foreign to the subject of this preface."

Cum apud niceam urbem.

A painting the breadth of the page. Chess-board ground of gold, pink and blue. On a green and black pavement stand seven figures. On L. a Bishop in mitre and blue cope semée with gold tridents, holding an open book, attended by clerk in alb bearing his crozier. On R. facing him, are five Bishops in mitres and copes with croziers.

On f. 50 b another painting of similar dimensions.

On L. Athanasius nimbed, in mitre and blue cope semée with A's, holds closed book. In C. on gold chair the Judge Probus, or Constantius (?), in Imperial crown and bright vermilion robe, floriated, with sceptre. On R. the three heretics (Arius, Photinus and Sabellius) grey-bearded men in brown and grey robes, with hoods over their heads.

On f. 51 b a similar painting. Vermilion ground with gold pattern.

On L. Athanasius face R. speaking. His cope is semée with IIIX in gold. In C. Probus on a wooden chair: his cap is blue lined with ermine, and his upper garment pink with red hood, lined with ermine: under robe of blue.

On R. are the three heretics: one holds a rosary and looks much like a Franciscan.

On f. 83 b Incipit sententia probi iudicis.

A rather larger painting. Ground a brilliant blue with beautiful foliage patterns. On L. Athanasius, with crozier. In C.
Probus (upper robe vermillion) pronouncing judgment. A little angel flies down from a cloud above towards his ear.

On R. the heretics, one with crutch-stick, in consternation.

Liber M. Thome Rayner. Emptus a venerabili viro prec. xls.

Liber M. Johannis Gat .. felde (partly erased). Emptus de do. Ricardo Welston executor' predict. M. Raynys prec. xxijs.

The ornament of the book apart from the pictures is remarkably fine. There is a great deal of most careful ivy-leaf ornament in the border, and the initials are excellent. Occasionally there are grotesques, monkeys, and dragons. It is unusual to find so sumptuous a copy of comparatively uncommon patristic tracts.

Contents :

Epistolae Pauli glosatae.

Prologue.

Principia rerum inquirenda sunt prius f. 1

—Premittit autem salutationem dicens.

It is the gloss attributed to Peter Lombard.

The gloss on Romans begins on f. 1 b. The text on f. 2. The text is written in a magnificent round hand twice as large as that of the gloss. The names of the authorities are in red in the margin.

Initial to prologue, fine interlaced work, and panelled stalk.

Prol. to Rom. Half-length of Paul with book.

Rom. Exquisite interlaced work in the head. In head and stalk are medallions of a blue man fighting a red man, a fox and a bear, a blue animal addressing a crowd of smaller black ones, a dragon eating a snake (?), two mailed horsemen fighting, a blue man wrestling with a bear (?). The letter is on a ground of blue.

1 Cor. f. 60. Bolder design: good medallions of foliage in the stalk.

2 Cor. f. 102 b. The same artist as the last, a man piercing a blue beast.

Prol. to Gal. f. 127 b. Half-length of Paul with blank scroll.

Gal. Finest interlaced work, with white beasts. Ground of pale purplish blue.

Prol. to Eph. f. 148 b. Interlaced work and white beasts: rougher work.

Eph. Similar: the stalk formed by a large figure of a nude man with slate-coloured body and vermillion head.

Prol. to Phil. } f. 163 b. Similar to the last, but without the man's figure.
Phil. }

Prol. to Col. f. 173 b. As the last: a red dog from the stalk of the letter.

Col. Half-length of a white-bearded bishop in mitre cope and crozier blessing. Gold ground.

Prol. to 1 Thess. f. 183. Interlaced work.

1 Thess. Paul seated, writing in a book. The letter is gold, the ground within, red, without, lilac.

Prol. to 2 Thess. f. 190. Fine decorative work.

2 Thess. The stalk formed by a blue dog, head down, with dragon in mouth. In the head of the letter, gold branch-work on lilac ground: unusual and striking.

Prol. to 1 Tim. f. 194 b. Decorative: the stalk is a blue man with horses' hoofs.

1 Tim. Half-length of a Bishop in blue chasuble with crozier and black sash.

Initials to 2 Tim. gone.

Titus. f. 209 b. One initial serves for Prologue and text.

Philemon. f. 213. Half-length of Paul with scroll.

Heb. f. 214 b. Interlaced work, with small beasts, of the finest kind.

Ends imperfectly in Heb. x. 13: scabellum pedum eius.

From Lichfield. On f. 1 are two notices, one badly the other neatly written, to the effect that in 1575 Antonius Diottus (Dyottus), son of John Dyott "senatoris celeberrimae ciuitatis Lichfeld," read the book carefully through and annotated it.

And on the margin of f. 1 of text is a neat drawing of a roe lying under a battlemented wall. The roe is lettered Ro. ger. is outside the picture, and the wall is inscribed Walle.

The owner (and scribe?), Roger Walle, was prebendary of Eccleshale in Lichfield Cathedral in 1454 and archdeacon of Stafford, and in 1459 of Coventry. He wrote the MS. Vitellius A. x. (Statutes of Lichfield) and copies of Thomas of Elmham's Prose and Metrical Lives of Henry V. The former is MS. Arundel xv. at the College of Arms.

O. 5. 32

Vellum, $13 \times 9\frac{3}{8}$, ff. 28 and 31, various numbers of lines to the page. Two volumes. Cent. xiv early, and cent. xv. The lower margins of the leaves in Vol. I. torn away.

Marked A. 42.

The name Thomas Richards (xv, xvi) is scribbled several times on margins.

Collation: I. 1¹⁰ 2⁸ 3¹² (wants 11, 12 blank).

II. 1¹² 2¹⁶ (16 canc.) 3⁴.

Contents:

1. A system of divination in French.

The page is divided into compartments, each containing a question. A letter of the alphabet is attached to every four: there are 32 on p. 1.

Sil serra auance cest an ou noun.

Si vous troueretz ce que vous conuerretz ou noun.

The following pages have ten rows of capital letters at top.

The rest of the page is in compartments (72 in each) containing names of mountains, trees, fish, plants, etc. e.g. Mount Syon. Arbre Coudre. Mount Oliuete. Arbre Cypres.

Beste Cerf. Flouu Tyber. Espicerie Safron.

The next ten pages have each an inscribed wheel in twelve compartments, each is headed with its title —ceo que lem voudra de bien ou de mal.

Explicit.

Probably an extract from the Kyranides.

2. On numbers f. 16 b

60000. Si vous voillez plus precisement sauoir la racine des nombres.

3. Un sage autour de geometrie dist qele fust prymes troue en Egipte.

—com si destourbaunce soit par une ou autre oscurtie.

4. Another system of prognostics. The names of the Zodiacal signs are at the tops of the pages: each page is in compartments, sometimes as many as 112. The first column contains the project, e.g. Entrer sur Rois ou seignurs. Festeier ou autre manere solacer, Messages maunder, etc. The others contain information as to whether it is to be successful or not, according to the Sign, e.g. Alouable et profitable, ne fait pas alouer, Meene entre bon et mal 20 b

Espece des herbes, des perres precieuses, des espices, des pessouns etc.

There is writing below, much of which is gone.

F. 5 is patched with a part of another leaf, which probably followed f. 10. It has verses headed 'le Roy de Rome.'

On f. 8 b begins a series of such verses in sets of nine lines, each attributed to a King.

Le Roy des Tours

Mieuz tauendra preuoir que tu ne quidas auoyr.

There are fifteen sets: the last is that of le Roy dalemaigne.

On 10 a is a xivth cent. scribble

ven. et discreto viro d. Thome capellano parochie de Tho.

and on 10 b:

iiij^d. O (?) Johannes lake dec. de godeword (?).

——— Rob. Dubber pro iii an. in pastur? dⁿⁱ.

iiij^d. — R.. lake (?) non habet Joh^{em} Weler (?).

5. Cy comence le liure Hermes le Philosofre parlaunt des 15 esteilles greyndres fixes et 15 pieres precieuses etc. . 11
In double columns of 38 lines.

6. Lunarie, in French verse 25 b

Pur voir de sounges et dautre rien
Bon est et verroie sachez bien.

Ends f. 28 b

Ore finist la lune seyne yci
Ihesu crist de nous eyt mercy. Amen.

Prayer

Glorieuse virgine seinte marie.

The rubric following says this was sent by the Virgin to St Morice leuesq de Paris.

Then follows a table of the lucky or unlucky days in each month.

Ianeuer en ad 7. Cest asauoir le primer.
le 2 le 4 le 6 le 11 le 15 et le 19.

II. 42 lines to a page: a later type of hand.
A tract on Medicine in Latin and French.

Quoniam omnia vicia a capite procedunt . . . I

French occurs first (without any break in the text) on f. 3 b.

At the bottom of f. 15 a in red is Wigornia.

On f. 29 b begins a letter from Iohannes Hispaniensis to the Queen of Spain.

Cum de utilitate corporis olim tractaremus.

The last page is a good deal stained, text ends est assez q'it cest seit use matin chaud de ceus q' ount mestier.

Then in another hand

Ipocras þis bouk • herknyþ to me and I 3ew wole telle.

Seven lines recommending the book.

1314. BRETON. } STATUTES. }

O. 5. 33

Vellum, $13\frac{1}{2} \times 9$, ff. 130 + 2, double columns of 46 lines.
Cent. xiv early, well written: an elaborate pen-work initial on f. 1.
Marked A. 37.

At the foot of f. 1 is a fairly old pencil mark xlii.

Collation: 1 flyleaf. 1⁸–11⁸ 12⁶ (wants 6 blank) 13⁸–16⁸ 17⁷ (five left). 1 flyleaf.

Ending on 130: one or two leaves are gone before this.

On 130 b are

1. Medecine pur la feuer (xiv).

2. Scribbles: xiv.

Edwardus etc. precipimus tibi quod attach. Ric^m Wegge

Vellum, $13\frac{1}{8} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$, ff. 199, two and four columns on a page of 41 lines. Cent. xii, in a noble hand.

The book has suffered very severely from some liquid of an oily character which has rotted the leaves: about thirty leaves in the middle of the book are seriously injured and one or more quires have been removed.

At the top of f. 1 a seems to be written faintly 'Cantu,' perhaps for Canterbury.

Marked A. 35.

1328. COMMENTARY ON THE GOSPELS. O. 5. 47

Vellum, $14\frac{3}{8} \times 10$, ff. 37, double columns of 37 lines. Cent. xii late, in a large upright hand.

There is no old mark.

The volume consists of fragments of several quires, too much mutilated to admit of satisfactory collation. A quire ends on f. 29 and is followed by one of 8 leaves. It is a part of a commentary on the Gospels, largely excerpted from the fathers, whose names are indicated in the margin. Gregory, Jerome, Augustine, Hilary are obvious. Other abbreviations of authors' names are N and R (Rabanus?). The Ammonian sections are written in the margins and the Gospel text given in full.

Contents :

Begins in Lib. iv.

quia tempus uisitationis sue attendere neglexerant. Sequitur post hec euangelista et dicit
Iohannes autem cum audisset.

On f. 6 begins Lib. v. the initial and opening words of which have been cut out.

It ends on f. 24: quod uobis iam per penitentiam dimissum fuisse gaudebamus. Expl. lib. quintus.

Inc. lib. sextus f. 24

Expositis ergo sermonibus qui in Galilea post expetitur ab eo

On f. 25 (xvi). Thomas Pettus owe this book Stauntoune.

Ends imperfectly in Lib. vi. in the section

Respondens autem Ihesus ait eis amen dico uobis si habueritis fidem et non hesitaueritis.

1329. LAWS OF HOWEL.

O. 7. 1

Vellum, $6\frac{7}{8} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$, ff. 68, 24 lines to a page. Cent. xiv early, well written. The front page much discoloured and to me illegible.

Marked C. 78. No. 210.

Collation: 1⁸-4⁸ 5⁶ 6⁸ (wants 8?) 7⁸ (wants 4?) 8⁸ 9⁸.

The catchwords are enclosed in rude pen drawings. 1, a peacock.
2, creature blowing a trumpet. 3, dragon, dart in mouth. 4, fish.
5, boar. 6, gone. 7, monster. 8, obscure.

Contents :

The Laws of Howel Dda in Welsh.

The beginning illegible.

Dalimil's Chronicle of Bohemia.

In Bohemian.

The Revd. R. Sinker, D.D., Librarian, was the first to call the attention of a Bohemian scholar (the late Revd. A. H. Wratislaw, then Headmaster of King Edward's School, Bury St Edmunds) to this MS. The text of it was used in v. Jireček's edition of the chronicle (Prague, 1878: Rymovana Kronika Česká, etc.). The text of the MS. was again published by itself, with photographic facsimiles, by Dr Mourek (Prague, 1892: Kronika Dalimilova podle Rulcoviva Cambridgeskeho).

The MS. contains about two-thirds of the whole text.

I am indebted to Dr Sinkler's kindness for the above particulars.

Laus Christo Vivo
Petrus Ursuleus de Capua scripsit.

This scribe's name is not in Bradley's Dict. of Miniaturists.

The miniatures, etc., are as follows:

1. Beatus vir f. 11. Border of amorini, birds, and gold leaf-ornament. There have been shields in the lower margin—now cut off. The style is excellent.

In the initial David with cusped nimbus kneels in landscape holding a triangular gold stringed instrument. In the background a tree by a river illustrating Ps. i.

2. Dominus illuminatio. Initial David in hat and crown holding the instrument as above points to his eye. Ground of lozenge cheques, gold, red, and blue.

3. Dixi custodiam. A very similar initial, rather smaller. David points to his mouth.

4. Dixit insipiens. The fool in a doublet half yellow, half brown: he holds a knotted stick, is bearded, and has a hat. Above on R. is the face of God in the sky. The fool is looking away from it and laughing.

5. Saluum me fac. David, nude except for a hat, kneeling in water over which a landscape has been coarsely painted. God's head above.

6. Exultate. David full-face plays on the triangular instrument. Three boys below play trumpet, harp, and viol.

7. Cantate. A crowd of white-robed clerks singing from a book on a wooden desk in two stages.

8. Dixit dominus. Christ with sceptre, the Father with gold orb, both seated.

9. Passio sec. Matheum. Almost half-page. Matthew seated at wooden desk, fitted with horns for black and red ink; he is writing in a book. An angel in air holds an open book for him.

10. Sec. Marcum. Mark at a similar desk writing on a scroll. Lion (winged) lies on R. guarding a book.

11. Sec. Lucam. Similar. Luke has a second book on a smaller desk. Winged ox lies on R. by a book.

12. Sec. Johannem. He is young and seated on a rocky island writing a long scroll. The eagle (more like a swallow) in air with open book on its back, and holding a scroll inscribed Aquila volans per medium celi.

The Litany is unusual. At the beginning is an alphabet of invocations to Christ, beginning Archangelorum eternitas, and ending Zelus et corona martyrum.

The patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Melchisedec, follow the (3) archangels.

Moses, Aaron, Elias, Isaiah—Daniel, Samuel, Zacharias, John Baptist.

Confessors. Severus, Eleucadius, Gulielmus, Gaudentius, Rofillus, Mercurialis, Egidius et prophete, Leonard, Paternian, Mauritius, Benedict, Maurus, Ilarus.

I conjecture from the entry of two Bishops of Naples in the Kalendar that the book was written for that diocese.

The confessors named above come from all parts of Italy.

Collation: 3 flyleaves. 1⁸–13⁸ | 14¹⁰ (10 canc.) 15⁸ 16⁸ 17⁸ (+ 8*).
3 flyleaves.

The flyleaves are partly accounts of cent. xv late. The fragment at the beginning chiefly relates to repairs of mills viz. Nywmille, Croford mylle, Cotecombe mylle. A millstone for the latter is bought at Bridgewater and carried to Weuelescombe.

The names of places in the fragment at end are mutilated, only —ngton and (Weu)elescombe survive.

The other flyleaves are probably from a book of formulae and consist of letters, some relating to the Council of Basle: the hand late xvth cent. At the top of f. 1 is an erased inscription.

On the flyleaf (xv) the name T. Perseuale.

The manor of Wiveliscombe belonged to the Cathedral of Wells, and it is possible that this book was once in the Library there.

Part of this volume is now Egerton MS. 847, formerly Halliwell 47. It is a vellum book, $7\frac{3}{4} \times 5$, ff. 159. Cent. xv, except ff. 1–13, which are of cent. xvi. The tracts now in the MS. are marked with an asterisk in the above list of contents. 2 fo. rustica.

The top half of f. 1 is cut off, and the old foliation erased throughout.

On f. 38 is the scribe's note :

quod W. de Hicchin.

Some part of the rest of the volume is, I believe, in Egerton MS. 824 (ff. 35, cent. xv, Halliwell, 58). The items in this are marked with a dagger in the table.

1392. ASTROLOGICA.

Kalendar in French, in red, blue and gold f.	i
Sequences of the Gospels	1
Antiphon. Te inuocamus.
Prayers. Protector noster. Ecclesiam tuam	7
Aue regina celorum etc.	8
Hours of the Virgin	9
Hours of the Cross	69
Hours of the Holy Ghost	74
Seven Psalms	79
Litany	93
Office of the Dead	103
ending imperfectly f. 155.

In the Kalendar S. Eutrope, 30 Ap., is in gold, also S. Blaise (14 June), SS. Gervasi and Protai (19 June), La dedicace de Rouen (2 Oct.), S. Romain (23 Oct.).

The use is of Rouen. The Capitulum in Lauds. In omnibus requiem. Hymn, O gloriosa domina.

In the Litany. Apostles, Martial: Disciples, Ursin: Confessors, Mello, Evodus, Gildard, Medard, Laudus, Romanus, Audoen, Vedast, Sulpicius, Severus, Philibert: Virgins, Opportuna, Rosa, Columba, Honorina.

Borders: fair work: a partial border on every page, a full one on the pictured pages. Grotesques and occasionally subjects occur in the full borders which are divided into lozenges and other forms.

Miniatures: fairly good. In two cases the original pictures have gone and have been replaced by bad work of cent. xvi.

1. Sequences of Gospels, f. 1. The Evangelists in four compartments, each writing, and accompanied by his symbol.

Border. Man riding on horned beast: monkey.

2. Matins of the Virgin, f. 17. Annunciation (cent. xvi). The Father and Dove above.

3. Lauds. The Visitation. Joseph stands behind Mary and Elizabeth. Two small angels on L.

4. Prime. The Virgin and Joseph and an angel, with ox and ass, adore the Child.

5. Tierce. Two shepherds, a woman spinning. Angel in air with scroll.

6. Sext ("Medy"). The adoration of the Magi. Virgin and Child on R. Joseph not present.

7. None. The Presentation. The midwife Salome kneels with basket and candle. Joseph stands by. Simeon is mitred and coped.

8. Vespers. Flight into Egypt (to L). In background on R. a soldier attacks the husbandman who is cutting his corn.

Border. A soldier killing a child. A mother lamenting over a dead child.

9. Compline. Coronation of the Virgin. She kneels to the Father in tiara and cope. Two angels in air crown her.

Border. Angels with harp and organ.

10. Hours of the Cross. Crucifixion (cent. xvi) with the Virgin and St John.

11. Hours of the Holy Ghost. Pentecost. The Virgin in the midst. The Dove above her head.

Border. A man in a gown kneeling.

12. Seven Psalms. David in prayer. Harp on a desk before him, crown on the ground. In air, the Father, and an angel with sword.

Border. Goliath with spear. David with sling, dog and sheep by him, an angel in air.

13. Office of the Dead. Burial. A shrouded corpse laid in the earth by two men. Three coped clerks are sprinkling the corpse. Acolyte with candle averts his face. Five mourners. In air, the soul received by an angel, a devil flying towards it.

Border. Death smiting a man in a tunic.

14. Verba mea. Initial. Clerks at desk, coffin with blue pall and group of mourners.

1394. BIBLIA SACRA.

O. 8. 19

Vellum, $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$, ff. 436 + 2, double columns of 59 lines. Cent. xiii, in a good small hand. Remarkable initials.

Marked C. 12. No. 143.

2 fo. sophista.

Collation: 2 flyleaves. $1^{12}-14^{12}$ 15^{10} (wants 9, 10) | 16^{14} 17^6 18^8
 $19^{12}-30^{12}$ 31^{10} $32^{12}-37^{12}$ 38^6 .

Matt. Bearded bust in initial: column of five heads growing out of each other, outside.

Rom. Head of Paul. A similar curious large head appears in the initial to each Epistle (except Heb.).

Jac. Head of James, at bottom.

1 Pet. Head of Peter.

3 John, Jude, Apoc. have good grotesques.

1395. LEGENDA AUREA.

O. 8. 20

Vellum, $7\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$, ff. 353 + flyleaves, double columns of 33 lines. Cent. xiv early, very well written.

Marked E. 13. No. 250.

2 fo. resurreccio or so matris.

On a flyleaf at the beginning is an inscription of cent. xv carefully erased liber

ex dono venerabilis magistri johannis hamworth.

At the bottom of f. 1 a hand of cent. xvii, xviii has written "Memoriale Fratris Joannis de Dryton." This is a mistake for which an inscription in the University Library MS. Gg. 2. 18 is responsible. It also is a Golden Legend, and the name of the monk or friar who gave it to his monastery has been mistaken for the title by Tanner and others.

Collation: 1⁴ 2¹² etc. the last a quire of 14 wanting 14: eleven flyleaves.

Contents :

Legenda Aurea Jacobi Januensis.

Table of Chapters f. 1

De resurreccione domini

Resurreccio Christi tercio die.

It is thus only the second half of the Legenda, beginning at Easter and ending with the chapter

De quadam uirgine antiochie, f. 351.

—Illi enim certauerunt hominibus, Iste deo. Hec Ambrosius, f. 353.

The verso has unimportant scribbles.

It is fortunately possible to point to the remaining portion of this MS. It is in the University Library Ee. 6. 31. The inscription identical with that in this volume is:

Liber domus sancti Edmundi ex dono venerabilis magistri Johannis hamworth.

The house to which both books belonged was, I believe, St Edmund's at Cambridge, a small Gilbertine establishment situated where Addenbrooke's Hospital now stands.

1396. EXEMPLA ETC.

O. 8. 21

Paper and vellum, 8 × 6, ff. cir. 150. Cent. xvi and xiii and xv. Marked C. 15. 46. (146).

The book is mostly in a bad hand of cent. xvi or xvii, but has, inserted here and there, leaves of two or three vellum MSS.

On f. 1 in red is a list of contents

Exempla.
Infantia Saluatoris.
Opera Hugonis.
Lauacrum Conscientiae.
Philosophia.
Sompniale prophetæ Danielis.

On f. 1 b notes.

Apocripha.

This Booke followynge of old write is (as I take it) Intytuled Sainte Gregories Dialogues unto Peter a Deacon of Rome: for the same tasteth of it in many poyntes. Se the 22 cap.
agreyinge with that other compyled by Henry Style in that parte of Hortulanus as followeth:

Or rather Legendes or Recuels of Saints or the fathers, as is mor manifest.

1. On the next four leaves are detached chapters (nos. 6, 7, 29, 30, 32-36) of a collection of Exempla. Then follows a table of contents. Then the beginning of the Collection.

Cap. 1. quam periculosum sit infringere votum siue fidem.

Legitur in Vita S. Jacobi Apostoli.

After six leaves (much of which is lined through) follows a vellum leaf of cent. xiii, xiv, 30 lines to a page. Marked ff°. 11j and containing cc. vii-ix of the Exempla. C. viii is from Bede, ix from Vitae patrum.

The hand of cent. xvi proceeds up to c. 37. Then follows c. 82. Quomodo Adam misit filium suum ad Paradisum.

Post peccatum Adæ (the History of the Cross).

After two leaves follows abruptly part of a version in English of St Gregory's Dialogues, and then the prologue to the same.

Henrie Stile a Monck of Westminster to the Hon. Eliz. Parker Lady Morley.

Marg. Stanleie Lorde Darbies Sister my Lord Morleis mother.
Further portions of the Collection of Exempla in Latin follow in great confusion and intermingled with the version of the Dialogues. There occur the following portions of the vellum MS.

f. x, cc. xxv-xxvii.

ff. xvi, xvii, cc. xl-xliv.

ff. xxv-xxviii, cc. lxx-lxxvi.

ff. xlvi-xlvij, in a hand of cent. xv, containing cc. 81, 82 (the Story of the Cross).

ff. xxxvii, xxxviii (fragment of Barlaam and Josaphat).

Six leaves of cent. xvi early, from the version of the Dialogues, perhaps in Henry Style's own writing.

2. After some blank leaves follows
Infantia Saluatoris nostri.
In diebus illis erat vir in Jerusalem.
(Printed by Tischendorf Evang. Apocr. as Evang. Pseudo-Matthaei.)
One leaf of the archetype, a paper MS. of cent. xv late, is inserted in this.
3. (De novem filiis diaboli.) Diabulus duxit iniquitatem in uxorem et genuit ex ea 9 filias.
(2 ff.).
4. (Lauacrum conscientiae.)
Qui non uultis dimittere peccata vestra.
(2 ff.)
5. (Philosophia.)
Legitur quendam regem quondam fuisse qui habuit 4 philosophos in regno suo —animam a vera vita quae est deus. Amen.
(2 ff.)
6. Inc. Somniale Danielis prophetae.
Daniel propheta cum suis sociis Anania etc.
—in compendio sequitur in hac forma.
Apes quam plures videre.
Zonam persicam cingere valetudinem.
Expl. somniale etc.
7. Interpretation of dreams by letters of the alphabet in a Psalter.
Si quis aliquod.
8. De somniis quibusdam expertis with spaces for pictures: one only, of a tree, is filled in.
9. Other notes on the interpretation and nature of Dreams.

19. λόγος τ. ἁγ. ἀποστόλων περὶ τῆς δευτέρας παρουσίας. (This title from the Index: none in text) 71
 Ἐν ταῖς ἡμέραις ἐκείναις προσῆλθον οἱ ἀπόστολοι τοῦ κυρίου λέγοντες· εἶπε ἡμῖν πότε ταῦτα ἔσται κ. τί τὸ σημεῖον τῆς σῆς παρουσίας κ. τ. συντελείας τ. αἰῶνος τούτου. λέγει αὐτοῖς ὁ Ἰησοῦς· ἡκούσατε τοῦ προφήτου δανιὴλ λέγοντος· ἑώρακα τὸν παλαιὸν τῶν ἡμερῶν.
 After a few lines Christ quotes a vision of Daniel which continues to the end. Much of it is occupied by a contest between an Abbot Stephanus μεσοκλίξ, and a wicked king. It does not appear to have been printed.
20. Ἐκθεσις τῶν ἁγ. γεροντων περὶ τ. εὐρεθήσις γυναικὸς ἐν τῇ νήσῳ μετὰ τ. υἱοῦ αὐτῆς 80 b

1409. ASTRONOMICA.

O. 8. 34

Vellum, $8\frac{1}{4} \times 6\frac{1}{2}$, ff. 4 + 48 + 51 + 1. Cent. xiii early, in two very beautiful small Italian (?) hands.

Marked C. 34. No. 165.

Flyleaves: 4 at the beginning from a roughly written Civil Law MS. in double columns (cent. xiii) in English hand. One heading of a section is Repeticio magistri roberts de broucley super l. si de vi et possessione.

One at the end of cent. xiii, from an astrological book in double columns in English hand.

Collation: I. 1⁶ 2⁸–5⁸ (+ 2 betw. 2 and 3) 68.

II. 1⁸–6⁸ 7? three left.

On one flyleaf is the name

Shyrwymir (?) xvi.

I. Consists entirely of Astronomical tables beautifully written with occasional diagrams. I have called the writing Italian: it may possibly be Spanish.

II. In a very similar hand: double columns of 47 lines.

Contents:

In nomine D. N. I. C.

Laus deo qui creauit celum.

Eight tractatus remain. The latter part of the MS. has suffered severely from damp and the last two leaves are fragmentary and well-nigh illegible.

1410. MEDICA.

O. 8. 35

Vellum, $8\frac{5}{8} \times 5\frac{7}{8}$, ff. 127 + 4, 22 lines to a page. Cent. xv late, clearly written.

Marked C. 37. No. 168.

The following inscription occurs several times with variation in date.

Henri. Dyngley anno $\overline{\text{xpi}}$ 1554 et anno Philippi et Marie primo et secundo vicesimo secundo die Marcii [at Adyngetoon in buckingegamshire].

On the flyleaves at the beginning are one or two receipts and also a table of Apothecaries' measures, and a rude sketch of a king with crown and sceptre and the legend Henricus vj. Rex Anglie.

Collation: 4 flyleaves. 1⁸-11⁸ (4 canc.) 12⁸-16⁸.

		This is continued (from f. 48 b) on ff. 1 b –8 b where it ends.
II.		The Brute Chronicle of England commonly called Caxton's Chronicle		49
		A good border to f. 49.
		Here begynneth a booke in englissh tonge called Brute etc.
		Here begynneth the ffirst Chapiter.
		Somtyme in the noble land of Surre.

The catchwords of the quires have grotesque and other ornaments: a crowned heart is not uncommon. There are handsome borders and initials to the divisions and at f. 102 is a page of paintings illustrating the Life of Edward the Confessor in six narrow and tall compartments. The style is excellent, but the paintings have been a good deal rubbed.

1. King Edward crowned: his arms on the canopy behind him: on either side three Bishops.
2. He gives the ring to the beggar (St John). Pink ground with gold pattern.
3. a. He kneels bareheaded under a canopy with his arms: a scroll before him on a desk: he smiles and looks surprised. On R. a Priest at altar elevates the Host.

b. Three ships full of warriors in plate armour: the King of Denmark falls into the sea out of a boat.

4. Edward and another kneel. A Priest on R. elevating the Host, in which is the figure of Christ nude blessing.

5. Green ground with gold ornament.

St John bearded gives the ring to two kneeling pilgrims.

6. The King at table between two Bishops. The two pilgrims kneel on the near side of the table, and one gives Edward the ring.

At f. 201 (A.D. 1422):

Nomina maiorum et Vicecomitum London. temp. Regis Henrici Sexti etc.

The original hand ends with the events of the 23rd of Henr. VI.

—for a fynall pees (225 b).

It then adds the Mayors and Sheriff for 24 Hen. VI. (1445).

The remainder of 225 b and 226 a blank.

On 226 b a later hand adds the record of 1446.

On the flyleaves at end are 3 pages of very badly written notes containing sayings of various Saints on the Sacrament of the Altar in English. At the end is the date 1551, but this seems later than the writing.

Then follows a note on the Pardon of Corpus Christi.

Lastly, occupying $2\frac{1}{2}$ pages, well written, an Indenture in English between "Walter Lokington and John Cokerych Wardenis of the fraternite or gelde of the Assumpcion of oure ladye Seint Marie in the Church of Seint Margarete within the close of Seint Peter of Westminster and the Brederne and Sustern of the same ffraternite or gilde on the oon partie and James Fytt Citezin and Taylour of London on the other partie" leasing to him certain lands in the parish of St Mary Aldermary.

Dated 26 Dec. 17 Edward IV.

The beginning of a late deed of Will. Barret of Sholton in Staffordshire on the verso.

The book evidently belonged to some person connected with the Guild of the Assumption in St Margaret's Westminster.

Liber de Arte memoratiua siue notoria.

Written by Simon Forman. On p. 106 is the colophon finis orationum per Simonem Forman 1600, 28 Junii hora p.m. at 8.

Begins:

Prol. In nomine s. trinitatis et indiuidue unitatis et in principio operationis istius sacratissimae artis notorie inuocato nomine altissimi creatoris etc. f. 1

Prologus per Sallomonem 3

In nomine Sancte et Indiuid. Trinitatis.

Inc. sanctissima Ars notoria quam Creator altissimus per Angelum suum super altare templi quodam modo Salomoni dum oraret ministrans.

The greater part of the book consists of prayers which are usually collections of Hebrew or Greek names, or imitations thereof; e.g. p. 52:

Elystemaht hacaram hemel Sadoc Ghesu heloy Camaraz
Coma Jetromaym Theos Deus pie et fortis hamathaz al Jecronamay etc.

The rubrics are often in English. An Index of the Prayers follows the text.

In his diary for 1600, Forman mentions that he had copied the two books of Apollonius Niger de Arte Memoratus (see Dict. Nat. Biog.). Probably this MS. is the copy he refers to.

1427. AUGUSTINUS DE CONCORDIA EVANGELISTARUM. } O. 9. 15

Vellum, 10 $\frac{1}{8}$ × 6, ff. 134 (wrongly numbered), 34 lines to a page. Cent. xi, xii, in a hand resembling that of Christ Church, Canterbury. Initials in red.

Marked B. 27. No. 93. 2 fo. qua uacatur.

A few marginal notes in red of cent. xvi early.

On a paper flyleaf at end in xviith cent. pencil is the name of Thomas Comber.

Flyleaves from a large Bible in double columns (late xiii) containing part of Job.

Collation: I¹²—II¹² I2².

Title in red capitals: the second line in blue has almost entirely gone.

Contents :

In nomine sancte Trinitatis et indiuidue | unitatis Incipit beatus

Augustinus... | De concordia euangelistarum f. 1

Inter omnes diuinas auctoritates (P. L. XXXIV. 1143).

Liber IV ends f. 144 (134):
 apud eum discipulis pedes Lauat.
 The verso is blank.

The book may be from Canterbury or Rochester (Edwards, p. 123). The name of Thomas Comber suggests a connexion with Durham, of which Comber was Dean, but I do not find the book in the old Catalogues.

1428. HIPPIATRICA.

Marked B. 25. No. 91.

2 fo. Exempli or Si est penes te.

Flyleaves from a very minutely written xiiith cent. MS. of a Commentary on Aristotle (?).

There is a good deal in the contents which suggests a North French or Flemish origin for the MS.

Collation: 1 flyleaf. 1²¹⁰ (wants 1-3) 2¹²-5¹² 6¹⁴ 7¹²-10¹² 11⁸ (wants 1) 12¹² 13⁴ (wants 4). 1 flyleaf.

Contents:

f. 1^a is covered with scribbles, e.g.

God grant me gras to gehte agayn y^e luffe y^t I haue loste.

On 1^b an original table of contents.

1. Inc. Capitula Libri Enchiridion B. Augustini ad Laurentium

Primicerium eccl. Urbice de fide et spe et caritate . f. 2 cxxv Capitula ending f. 5^a (P. L. XL. 231).

Finiunt Capitula.

On f. 5^b a drawing occupying $\frac{2}{3}$ of the space for text. In two tiers. Above Christ seated in vesica, on rainbow, with book resting against his L. arm, sceptre in L. hand, blessing.

On L. and R. angels swinging censers. Below the feet of the one on R. is a prostrate man with crosier, adoring.

Below, Augustine throned, with crosier, blessing.

On L. Michael thrusting a spear down the dragon's throat.

On R. a prostrate man with curved staff: on his back walks another with Tau-headed staff.

The only colours used are pale red and green, the work rough.

Title in capitals, red and green.

- Inc. liber Enchiridion B. Aug. ad Laurentium.
 On f. 6*a* a large initial D of conventional foliage containing lions, dragons and birds. The branch-work of which it consists is mostly white on green, red and blue grounds. The ground outside is purple.
 The first words of the Enchiridion, Dicit non potest dilectissime fili Laurenti, are in coloured capitals.
 On the lower margin in large letters (xiii, xiv) is the title Encheridion.
 Ends f. 42*b*

6. Inc. Epistola Alcuini ad Widonem comitem 57
 Dilectissimo filio Guidoni Comiti (P. L. CI. 613).
 Initial occupying half the page of the same style as that of No. 1. The surrounding ground is yellow-brown in this case and the execution is rather better.
 There is a ruder initial to the text on f. 57*b*.
 Ends f. 72*b*: pandere dignus efficietur.
 Finit liber.
7. Inc. liber S. Ambrosii ad Vercellensem ecclesiam de morte Eusebii Ep. et martiris (P. L. XVI. 1189) 73
 Ambrosius seruus Christi.
 A strange initial almost full-page of white leaf- and branch-work on blue, red and yellow grounds: rather coarsely done.
 Ends f. 90*b*: sine heresis temulentia.
 Finit ad Vercellensem aecclesiam.
8. Cur missa celebretur et quid significant que in ea canuntur (so the title in the original Table) 90*b*

1439. HESIOD.

{ O. 9. 27
 { 5963

Vellum, $10\frac{5}{8} \times 7\frac{1}{4}$, ff. 62 + 1, about 30 lines to a page.
 Cent. xiii, xiv in two hands: partly palimpsest: lines not ruled.

Marked I. 25. No. 368.

Collation: 1 flyleaf. 1⁸-3⁸ (wants 1) 4⁸ 5⁸ (wants 8) 6⁸ 7⁸.

On the flyleaf are scribbles in the hand of the principal scribe.

Also a xvth cent. title in Italian hand:

hesiodus cum comento in pergameno.

A letter or note very obscurely written, beginning

Ego Stefanus Grecus.

It apparently does not refer to this MS.

On f. 1 at bottom

Liber D. Grimani Car^{lis} S. Marci.

A band of ornament at top with a lion and dragon above.

Contents:

Ἰωάννου γραμματικοῦ τοῦ Τζέτζου ἐξήγησις τῆς βίβλου τῶν ἔργων καὶ ἡμερῶν Ἡσιόδου.

στίχοι Ἰαμβικοὶ δωρικοὶ πρὸς πρόκλον τὸν προὔξηγησάμενον τὸν ἠσίοδον κ.τ.λ.

ff. 2 b, 3 a are a good deal stained with galls.

The text of Hesiod begins on f. 5 b with a large red initial. It is in a larger hand than the comment, with which it alternates, a few lines at a time. There are interlinear glosses.

f. 15 b is badly stained with galls.

The second hand appears first on f. 22 b; it is rather better than the first.

The first hand reappears at f. 32, the whole of quire 5 is written by it.

This quire is palimpsest. The older writing (not, I think, very much older) is in double columns of 39 lines: a small hand.

The matter is probably Biblical or Christian; I seem to read the word $\chi\upsilon$ for $\chi\rho\iota\sigma\tau\omicron\upsilon$ on 38 b.

The second hand reappears at f. 39 and continues to the end.

The text is incomplete, ending f. 62 b with l. 760.

ὦδ ἔρδειν δεινὴν δὲ βροτῶν ὑπαλεύεο φήμην.

The comment ends

μωμοσκοπεῖ τὰ μυστηρια (?).

The MS. was first collated by Dobree for Gaisford, and last by F. A. Paley for his edition (1883). Mr Paley set a very high value on the text: in his opinion it is perhaps the best copy of the Works and Days in existence. He gives a facsimile of a very neat drawing of the plough and other agricultural implements which occurs on f. 43 b. As to the date he says that it is "apparently of the early part of the xivth cent., perhaps older. It contains, however, the writing of several hands, and the first part, to v. 256, is probably of saec. xiii." I only distinguish two hands, which must be contemporary, since the second is found on the same leaf as the first.

1446. ROMANCE OF ALEXANDER.

O. 9. 34

Vellum, $11\frac{1}{4} \times 7\frac{3}{8}$, ff. 46, double columns of 46 lines. Cent. xiii (1250) in a good clear hand (English), with a large number of excellent drawings.

Marked H. 12. No. 326.

Collation: quires gone at beginning. 1⁸ 2⁸ (wants 3, 6) 3⁸ quire or quires gone, 4⁸ (wants 8) 5⁸ (wants 1, 2, 4, 5, 8) 6⁸ (marked xj) 7⁸ (marked xij: wants 4, 5).

On the last leaf is a drawing, xv, xvi, of a dragon with scroll a tort ieo suis (?).

The volume is illustrated by 152 pictures in fine outline, lightly washed with colours, green, red and blue—green being perhaps the most conspicuous. The work is excellent: and the style of both drawing, colouring and writing inclines me to hazard the conjecture that the birthplace of the volume was St Alban's Abbey.

The frames of the drawings are edged (alternately, roughly speaking) with green and pink.

Contents :

The Romance of Alexander, in French verse, by Eustache (or Thomas) of Kent.

The following paragraphs are epitomized from a MS. account by M. Paul Meyer drawn up in 1871.

Two other MSS. of this poem are known.

1. The only complete copy, formerly in the Library of the Duc de la Vallière (no. 2702), now Bibl. Nat. Fonds de la Vallière 45.

On this see Legrand d'Aussy, Notices et Extraits, v. 121.

Weber, Metrical Romances, I. xxv, copies him.

This MS. closely resembles ours in the writing and the miniatures.

2. Durham Cathedral Library, C. IV. 27 B, without miniatures: mutilated. See P. Meyer in Archives des Missions, 1867.

The poem is partly original and partly copied from the Roman d'Alexandre of Lambert le Tort and Alexander of Bernay (ed. Michelant, Stuttgart, 1846). Speaking broadly, ff. 1-7, 39 (col. 4)—46, of this MS. represent the borrowed portions.

The author of the poem in this MS. calls himself Eustache: in the Paris MS. the reading is Thomas. The Durham MS. has a lacuna at the point.

To these remarks of M. Meyer I add the following notes.

The portions of text preserved in this copy are

1. f. 1. Meint poindre ben enpris les autres fet corocer (Michelant, p. 177, v. 32).

1503.

Paper, 8×6 , pp. 230 of text. Cent. xvii, very well written.

Given by W. Aldis Wright, M.A., Vice-Master, in 1901.

It contains the armorial book-plate of John Clarke. A note by Mr James Crossley says:

This came from the Collection of William Longueville of the Inner Temple, the famous conveyancer in the time of Charles and James the 2nd, the friend and patron of Butler, the author of Hudibras, who was for some time an amanuensis of Selden. His son Charles Longueville left his Manuscripts and Law Library to John Clarke, whose coat of arms is on the opposite page.

A note by J. E. Bailey adds

This was Lot 3879 in the sale catalogue of Mr James Crossley, sold in London, June 1885.

Mr Wright notes, however, that Lot 3879 is described in the Catalogue as 2 vols. 4to.

The Discourse of John Selden, Esq., or his sense of various matters of weight and high consequence Relating especially to Religion and State.

Distingue tempora.

Dedication by Ri. Milward to Justice Hales, Ed. Heywood, John Vaughan and Rowland Jewks.

Given by W. Aldis Wright, M.A., Vice-Master, in 1901.

It belonged in 1837 to J. Lee of Doctors' Commons, who purchased it in that year from Rodd for £1. 5s.

It contains copies of certain Pythagorean fragments in Stobaeus, viz. by Archytas, Theages, Diotogenes, Sthenidas, Lephantus, and a few other fragments with corrections by Brunck.

Paper, $15 \times 9\frac{5}{8}$, pp. 397 written. Cent. xviii early, well written.

Given by W. Aldis Wright, M.A., Vice-Master, in 1901. He purchased it of Wm Downing in 1896. It was in the Phillipps Collection, no. 13955 (Phillipps sale, June 11, 1896, lot 283). On the back are the initials R.K. and the date 1712.

Mr Wright notes that

This volume contains a transcript of the MS. of Robert of Gloucester's Chronicle in the Bodleian Library Oxford, Digby, 205. It is probably the same as that which is mentioned by Hearne in the Preface to his edition of the Chronicle (p. x) as having been made at the charges of his "late ingenious and learned Friend Robert Keck Esq. (who was formerly Gentleman Commoner of University College, and died in the year 1719)."

The mark Roehampton Z. 2 is on the flyleaf.

The text ends on p. 395. On p. 397 is a note of the transcriber as to certain doubtful or difficult points in the MS.

In the same Class are kept the following :

Manuscript and printed works of C. W. King, M.A., late Fellow, in 37 volumes.

The Old Testament in English, in 7 volumes, with the corrections of F. Field, D.D., late Fellow, and Canon of Norwich ; being the copy used by him as a Member of the Committee for the Revised Version.

A collection of letters of Thomas Carlyle to Edward Fitzgerald, relating to Naseby. Given by W. Aldis Wright, M.A., Vice-Master, in 1901.

The Correspondence of Dawson Turner in 82 volumes, extending from 1790 to 1851. The seals of the envelopes are mounted at the end of each volume, and there are careful Indexes.

Bequeathed in 1890 by Eleanor Jane Jacobson, daughter of Dawson Turner, and widow of the late Dr Jacobson, Bishop of Chester.

The Accounts of King's Hall, in 26 volumes, extending from 1326 to 1540.
